

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION VIETNAM VETERANS DAY

- WHEREAS: On March 29, 1973, the last American troops were withdrawn from South Vietnam, thus ending military involvement in what is the longest war in our country's history; and
- WHEREAS: Due to the turbulent cultural climate of the era and the unpopularity of the long conflict, many of the returning veterans did not receive the respect and gratitude they deserved for serving their nation; and
- WHEREAS: In the quarter century since its unveiling, the Vietnam Memorial has helped heal a nation deeply divided by the Vietnam War and has paid eternal tribute to the more than 58,000 U.S. service members who made the ultimate sacrifice; and
- WHEREAS: Of the names listed on the Vietnam Memorial Wall, 1,582 are from the state of Georgia. Vietnam Veterans Day is an opportunity to recall, in a spirit of pride and gratitude, the heroic accomplishments of service members who gave their lives and all those who served our country during the Vietnam conflict; now
- THEREFORE: I, NATHAN DEAL, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim March 29, 2011 as VIETNAM VETERANS DAY in Georgia and invite all citizens both in public ceremonies and in private thoughts and prayers to gratefully acknowledge our Vietnam Veterans.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 29th day of March in the year of our Lord two thousand eleven.
