

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

RONALD REAGAN DAY

- WHEREAS: President Ronald Wilson Reagan, a man of humble background, worked throughout life serving freedom and advancing the public good, having been employed as an entertainer, union leader, corporate spokesman, Governor of California, and President of the United States; and
- WHEREAS: President Reagan served with honor and distinction for two terms as the 40th President of the United States of America, the second of which he earned the confidence of three-fifths of the electorate and was victorious in forty-nine of fifty states in the general election – a record unsurpassed in the history of American presidential elections; and
- WHEREAS: In 1981, when Ronald Reagan was inaugurated as President, he inherited a disillusioned nation shackled by rampant inflation and high unemployment; and
- WHEREAS: President Reagan's dedication to an active social policy agenda for the nation's children helped lower crime and drug use in our neighborhoods; and
- WHEREAS: President Reagan's commitment to our armed forces contributed to the restoration of pride in America, her values and those cherished by the free world, and prepared America's armed forces to meet 21st century challenges; and
- WHEREAS: President Reagan's vision of peace through strength led to the end of the Cold War and the ultimate demise of the Soviet Union, guaranteeing basic human rights for millions of people; and
- WHEREAS: February 6, 2020 will mark the 109th anniversary of President Reagan's birth and the sixteenth year since his passing; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim February 6, 2020 as RONALD REAGAN DAY in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 11th day of December in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Nineteen.
