

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

DORAVILLE SESQUICENTENNIAL DAY

- WHEREAS: The city of Doraville was issued its charter by the state legislature on December 15, 1871; and
- WHEREAS: Doraville has grown significantly since its founding and is now a welcome, diverse home for over 10,000 citizens; and
- WHEREAS: The city is attractive to any company looking to relocate inside the I-285 perimeter or for a small business to plant its roots; and
- WHEREAS: The city has become a prosperous place to live and raise a family in the state of Georgia, and the 150-year anniversary will be a momentous time to celebrate its people and history; and
- WHEREAS: The leaders and citizens of Doraville have worked hard to create a thriving and resilient community that embodies the innovative spirit of our State; and
- WHEREAS: This occasion reminds residents how far the city of Doraville has come and what it can accomplish in its future; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim December 15, 2021 as DORAVILLE SESQUICENTENNIAL DAY in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 11th day of December in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-One.
