

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES WEEK

- WHEREAS: Operating at the crossroads between health care, public health, and public safety, emergency medical services (EMS) workers comprise an important part of Georgia's healthcare system; and
- WHEREAS: Our EMS system includes emergency medical technicians, paramedics, emergency medical dispatchers, emergency physicians, nurses, firefighters, police officers, educators, and other out-of-hospital care providers; and
- WHEREAS: These EMS workers serve our communities throughout all hours of the day and night, providing critical assistance in times of need; and
- WHEREAS: During Emergency Medical Services Week and throughout the year, it is abundantly fitting and proper to recognize EMS workers for their selfless dedication and extraordinary efforts; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim May 17-23, 2021 as EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES WEEK in Georgia and further encourage all Georgians to join in recognizing all members of Georgia's emergency medical services system.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 3rd day of May in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-One.
