

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

WEEK OF THE YOUNG CHILD

- WHEREAS: Children are our most precious resource. The early years of a child's life are vital in shaping their learning and development; and
- WHEREAS: A bright future for Georgia depends on the quality of the early childhood experiences provided to our children today. A child's parents, family members, mentors, teachers, and childcare providers can support early learning for all young children; and
- WHEREAS: These men and women who provide their time and effort to support families and to make a difference in the lives of Georgia's children deserve our thanks and recognition; and
- WHEREAS: The 50th anniversary of the Week of the Young Child is a time to recognize that the early childhood years are the foundation for children's success in their academic careers and adulthood; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim April 10-16, 2021, as WEEK OF THE YOUNG CHILD in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 26th day of March in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-One.
