11 subsection (a) of Code Section 17-10-1, relating to fixing of sentence, suspension or 12 probation of sentence, change in sentence, eligibility for parole, prohibited modifications, 13 and exceptions, as follows:

14 "(a)(1)(A) Except in cases in which life imprisonment, life without parole, or the death 15 penalty may be imposed, upon a verdict or plea of guilty in any case involving a 16 misdemeanor or felony, and after a presentence hearing, the judge fixing the sentence

17 shall prescribe a determinate sentence for a specific number of months or years which 18 shall be within the minimum and maximum sentences prescribed by law as the 19 punishment for the crime. The judge imposing the sentence is granted power and 20 authority to suspend or probate all or any part of the entire sentence under such rules 21 and regulations as the judge deems proper, including service of a probated sentence in 22 the sentencing options system, as provided by Article 6 of Chapter 3 of Title 42, and 23 including the authority to revoke the suspension or probation when the defendant has 24 violated any of the rules and regulations prescribed by the court, even before the 25 probationary period has begun, subject to the conditions set out in this subsection;
26 provided, however, that such action shall be subject to the provisions of Code 27 Sections 17-10-6.1 and 17-10-6.2.

28 (B)(i) When a defendant with no prior felony conviction is convicted of felony 29 offenses or is charged with felony offenses and is sentenced pursuant to subsection (a)
30 or (c) of Code Section 16-13-2 or Article 3 of Chapter 8 of Title 42, and the court
31 imposes a sentence of probation or not more than 12 months of imprisonment
32 followed by a term of probation, the court shall include a behavioral incentive date 33 in its sentencing order that does not exceed three years from the date such sentence
34 is imposed. Within 60 days of the expiration of such incentive date, if the defendant 35 ~~has not been arrested for anything other than a nonserious traffic offense as defined~~
36 ~~in Code Section 35-3-37, has been compliant with the general and special conditions~~ 37 ~~of probation imposed, and has paid all restitution owed~~ (1) paid all restitution owed; 38 (2) not had his or her probation revoked in the immediately preceding 24 months, or

41 (3) not been arrested for anything other than a nonserious traffic offense as defined 42 in Code Section 35-3-37, the Department of Community Supervision shall notify the 43 prosecuting attorney and the court of such facts. The Department of Community

44 Supervision shall provide the court with an order to terminate such defendant's 45 probation which the court shall execute unless the court or the prosecuting attorney 46 requests a hearing on such matter within 30 days of the receipt of such order. The 47 court shall set the matter for a hearing as soon as possible but not more than 90 days
48 after receiving the order to terminate. The court shall take whatever action it 49 determines would be for the best interest of justice and the welfare of society.

50 (ii) This subparagraph is intended to be retroactive and shall be applied to any case 51 in which a person with no prior felony conviction was convicted of felony offenses 52 or was charged with felony offenses and was sentenced pursuant to subsection (a) or 53 (c) of Code Section 16-13-2 or Article 3 of Chapter 8 of Title 42, and the court 54 imposed a sentence of probation or a sentence of not more than 12 months of 55 imprisonment followed by a term of probation. A behavioral incentive date shall as 56 a matter of law be included in the sentencing order, but in a case where it was not, 57 the behavioral incentive date shall be three years from the date such sentence was 58 imposed.

59 (2)(A) Active probation supervision shall terminate in all cases no later than two years 60 from the commencement of active probation supervision unless specially extended or 61 reinstated by the sentencing court upon notice and hearing and for good cause shown; 62 provided, however, that in those cases involving:

63 (i) The collection of restitution, the period of active probation supervision shall 64 remain in effect for so long as any such obligation is outstanding, or until termination 65 of the sentence, whichever first occurs;

66 (ii) A conviction under Chapter 15 of Title 16, the 'Georgia Street Gang Terrorism
67 and Prevention Act,' the period of active probation supervision shall remain in effect 68 until the termination of the sentence, but shall not exceed five years unless as 69 otherwise provided in this paragraph; or

70 (iii) A conviction that requires the defendant to register on the state sexual offender
71 registry pursuant to Code Section 42-1-12, the period of active probation supervision 72 shall remain in effect until the court orders unsupervised probation, or until 73 termination of the sentence, whichever first occurs.

74 (B) Probation supervision shall not be required for defendants sentenced to probation
75 while the defendant is in the legal custody of the Department of Corrections or the State
76 Board of Pardons and Paroles.

77 (3)(A) Any part of a sentence of probation revoked for a violation other than a 78 subsequent commission of any felony, a violation of a special condition, or a 79 misdemeanor offense involving physical violence resulting in bodily injury to an 80 innocent victim which in the opinion of the trial court constitutes a danger to the 81 community or a serious infraction occurring while the defendant is assigned to an 82 alternative probation confinement facility shall be served in a probation detention 83 center, probation boot camp, weekend lock up, or confinement in a local jail or 84 detention facility, or other community correctional alternatives available to the court 85 or provided by the Department of Corrections.

86 (B) A parolee or probationer charged with a misdemeanor involving physical injury 87 or an attempt to commit physical injury or terroristic threats or with a new felony shall 88 not be entitled to bond pending a hearing on the revocation of his or her parole or 89 probation, except by order of a judge of the superior, state, or magistrate court wherein 90 the alleged new offense occurred after a hearing and upon determination of the 91 superior, state, or magistrate court that the parolee or probationer does not constitute 92 a threat to the community; provided, however, that this subparagraph does not authorize 93 state or magistrate court judges to grant bail for a person charged with any offense
94 listed in subsection (a) of Code Section 17-6-1.

95 (4) In cases of imprisonment followed by probation, the sentence shall specifically 96 provide that the period of probation shall not begin until the defendant has completed

97 service of the confinement portion of the sentence. No revocation of any part of a
98 probated sentence shall be effective while a defendant is in the legal custody of the State
99 Board of Pardons and Paroles.

100 (5)(A) When a defendant has been sentenced to probation, the court shall retain 101 jurisdiction throughout the period of the probated sentence as provided for in 102 subsection (g) of Code Section 42-8-34. Without limiting the generality of the 103 foregoing, the court may shorten the period of active probation supervision or 104 unsupervised probation on motion of the defendant or on its own motion, or upon the 105 request of a community supervision officer, if the court determines that probation is no 106 longer necessary or appropriate for the ends of justice, the protection of society, and the 107 rehabilitation of the defendant. When the court is presented with a petition to shorten 108 the period of active probation supervision or unsupervised probation, the court shall set 109 the matter for a hearing as soon as possible but not more than 90 days after receiving 110 such motion. Prior to entering any order for shortening a period of probation, the court 111 shall afford notice to the victim or victims of all sex related offenses or violent offenses
112 resulting in serious bodily injury or death and, upon request of the victim or victims so 113 notified, shall afford notice and an opportunity for hearing to the defendant and the 114 prosecuting attorney.

115 (B) The Department of Community Supervision shall establish a form document which 116 shall include the elements set forth in this Code section concerning notification of 117 victims and shall make copies of such form available to prosecuting attorneys in this 118 state. When requested by the victim, the form document shall be provided to the victim 119 by the prosecuting attorney. The form shall include the address of the community 120 supervision office having jurisdiction over the case and contain a statement that the 121 victim must maintain a copy of his or her address with the community supervision 122 office and must notify the office of any change of address in order to maintain

123 eligibility for notification by the Department of Community Supervision as required in 124 this Code section.

125 (6)(A) Except as otherwise authorized by law, no court shall modify, suspend, probate, 126 or alter a previously imposed sentence so as to reduce or eliminate a period of 127 incarceration or probation and impose a financial payment which:

128 (i) Exceeds the statutorily specified maximum fine, plus all penalties, fees, 129 surcharges, and restitution permitted or authorized by law; or

130 (ii) Is to be made to an entity which is not authorized by law to receive fines, 131 penalties, fees, surcharges, or restitution.

132 (B) The prohibitions contained in this paragraph shall apply regardless of whether a 133 defendant consents to the modification, suspension, probation, or alteration of such 134 defendant's sentence and the imposition of such payment.

135 (C) Nothing in this paragraph shall prohibit or prevent a court from requiring, as a 136 condition of suspension, modification, or probation of a sentence in a criminal case 137 involving child abandonment, that the defendant pay all or a portion of child support 138 which is owed to the custodial parent of a child which is the subject of such case.

139 (7) As used in this subsection, the term:

140 (A) 'Active probation supervision' means the period of a probated sentence in which 141 a probationer actively reports to his or her community supervision officer or is 142 otherwise under the direct supervision of a community supervision officer.

157 prohibit the conviction and sentencing of the probationer for the subsequent commission 158 of the same or a similar offense or for the subsequent continuation of the offense for which 159 he or she was previously sentenced.

160 (b) The court may at any time cause the probationer to appear before it to be admonished
