

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

- WHEREAS: Millions of Americans face physical and emotional abuse at the hands of their significant other each year; and
- WHEREAS: Domestic violence defined as abusive behavior in a personal relationship, and in a lifetime 1 in 4 of women and 1 in 7 men experience severe violence at the hands of an intimate partner; and
- WHEREAS: Organizations like Liberty House work towards the elimination of domestic violence and provide necessary services, working with local communities and serving by providing emergency shelter, advocacy education, awareness, community resources, and collaboration to ensure that all victims are empowered to achieve self-sufficiency; and
- WHEREAS: Domestic violence can affect anyone regardless of their age, race, gender, or socioeconomic status, leaving an impact on thousands of individuals and families across Georgia over the years; and
- WHEREAS: Organizations across Georgia are working to end domestic violence and provide the support survivors need to find their voice, while law enforcement remains committed to ensuring justice is served to individuals who harm those who trust them; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim October 2022 as DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 31st day of August in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Two.
