

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

NAVY TALENT ACQUISITION GROUP ATLANTA CHANGE OF COMMAND

- WHEREAS: Since the United States Navy was founded on October 13, 1775 by the Second Continental Congress, it has played a critical role in conflicts like the American Revolution, World Wars I and II, and the War on Terrorism; and
- WHEREAS: We are forever grateful for the work that the men and women do in the Navy as they work diligently to protect our way of life; and
- WHEREAS: We thank our Sailors, Navy civilians, and families for making the Navy a global force that protects freedom around the world; and
- WHEREAS: The State of Georgia is proud of its history and relationship with the Navy, including hosting the Navy Talent Acquisition Group Atlanta, Navy Information Operations Command Georgia, and the Navy Submarine Base at Kings Bay; and
- WHEREAS: Our Sailors are taught courage and versatility as they meet challenges in their missions. Preventing wars is just as important as winning them, which is why the Navy works hard to return peace and stability in areas all around the globe while providing medical care for all those in need after conflict; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim March 17, 2022 as the official CHANGE OF COMMAND ceremony and congratulate Commander John J. Williams as he assumes the helm as Commanding Officer, Navy Talent Acquisition Group Atlanta.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 31st day of January in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Two.
