

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA,

A PROCLAMATION

EDUCATION AND SHARING DAY

- WHEREAS: A quality education is one of the most significant pillars of our state, our country, and our society at large. In the great state of Georgia, we strive for the betterment of all our citizens through an increased focus on education and sharing; and
- WHEREAS: The possibility of an excellent education for all creates hope for a brighter, kinder, and more united and prosperous future in the lives of so many; and
- WHEREAS: One of the leading global advocates for the advancement of education, the Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson, stressed the importance of moral and ethical education as the bedrock of humanity and the hallmark of a healthy society, and strongly urged that education be reinforced by the inculcation of strong moral values; and
- WHEREAS: In recognition of the Rebbe's outstanding and lasting contributions toward improvements in world education and acts of charity, the United States Congress has established his birthdate as a national "Education and Sharing Day" to raise awareness and strengthen the education of our children; and
- WHEREAS: April 2, 2023, will mark 121 years since the Rebbe's birth, capping a year in which thousands of new institutions and initiatives were launched throughout the world in tribute to this celebration; and
- WHEREAS: We can nurture the unity of diverse peoples through encouraging acts of goodness and kindness, imbued with awareness that even a single positive act of an individual can make a major impact in this world; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim April 2, 2023, as EDUCATION AND SHARING DAY in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 31st day of March in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Three.
