(E) Consider on the record whether a child protective services report was made in accordance with paragraph (3) of this subsection and if not, the court shall notify DFCS through the county director, the court liaison, or the attorney representing DFCS by phone or email that the court will be considering placing the child into the custody of DFCS. DFCS shall have an opportunity to be present at the case disposition hearing of the child in need of services to provide information to the court as to the availability of services for the child. Notice to the DFCS county office via, phone, email, or other means shall be considered sufficient; and

(F) As used in this paragraph, the term 'consider on the record' means the court's foundational inquiry regarding the possible services available to a dependent child.

(3) In any CHINS case in which DJJ or any county operated probation office serving the court determines that there is a reasonable basis to believe that the child is dependent, it shall make a child protective services report to the Statewide Child Protective Services

42 Communication Center (CICC) and shall notify the county director of the DFCS office
43 in the county in which disposition is to be made in the CHINS case.

44 (4) Once a child has been ordered into the custody of DFCS, the court shall comply with 45 Article 3 of Chapter 11 of this title, including conducting a preliminary protective hearing

48 (5) All parties to the CHINS case shall provide copies of all medical, psychological, and 49 educational assessments and reports pertaining to the child and the child's parent or 50 guardian in their possession to DFCS no later than 72 hours after a child has been ordered 51 into the custody of DFCS by the court.

52 (A) The court shall make an inquiry as to whether any parties to the CHINS case or 53 court personnel, including the court clerk's file, have either possession of or immediate 54 access to such records. The parties or personnel in possession of such records or with 55 access to such records shall provide copies of all such records to DFCS;
