

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

GIFTED EDUCATION MONTH

- WHEREAS: Children are the future of the State of Georgia, and it is important to work to meet the individual academic needs of all students by providing quality educational programs and well-prepared educators; and
- WHEREAS: Education should foster the development of recognized potential in the areas of mental ability, creativity, academics, motivation, leadership, and visual and performing arts; and
- WHEREAS: Educators across the State of Georgia play a key role in finding, maintaining, and furthering the unique talents possessed by all students; and
- WHEREAS: The State of Georgia is home to tens of thousands of gifted and talented children whose full potential can be best tapped through the long-term partnership of parents, educators, and leaders in the community; and
- WHEREAS: Gifted students provide this great state with significant resources for future leadership in all areas of society. Maximum development of each individual's intellectual and creative powers ensures a bright future for all in the State of Georgia; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim March 2024, as GIFTED EDUCATION MONTH in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 7th day of March in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Four.
