

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

PUBLIC WORKS WEEK

WHEREAS: Public works professionals focus on infrastructure, facilities, and services that are of vital importance to the sustainable and resilient communities and to the public health, high quality of life, and well-being of the people of Georgia; and

WHEREAS: These infrastructure, facilities, and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of public works professionals, who are engineers, managers, and employees at all levels of government and the private sector, who are responsible for rebuilding, improving, and protecting our nation's transportation, water supply, water treatment and solid waste systems, public buildings, and other structures and facilities essential for our citizens; and

WHEREAS: These individuals are responsible for rebuilding, improving, and protecting our nation's transportation, water supply, water treatment and solid waste systems, public buildings, and other structures and facilities essential for our citizens; and

WHEREAS: During the 64th Annual Public Works Week sponsored by the American Public Works Association/Canadian Public Works Association, in the spirit of this year's theme, "Advancing Quality Life for All," the State of Georgia encourages its citizens to learn about the importance of public works and public works programs in their respective communities and to understand the positive impact these services have on our daily lives; now

THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim May 19-25, 2024, as PUBLIC WORKS WEEK in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 28th day of March in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Four.
