

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

FIRST RESPONDERS' APPRECIATION DAY

- WHEREAS: The State of Georgia joins the First Responders Children's Foundation's Roll Call of Heroes in recognizing all of the country's first responders, including: police officers, firefighters, EMTs, paramedics, 911 dispatchers, and other organizations in the public safety sector who selflessly serve the public in the event of an emergency; and
- WHEREAS: First responders are integral to every community across America, showcasing bravery, courage, and dedication when risking their safety in the execution of their duties to protect us every day; and
- WHEREAS: First responders are the first line of defense, protecting the public against all threats, both domestic and foreign, and they stand ready to come to the aid of the citizens of the State of Georgia 24 hours a day; and
- WHEREAS: The daily sacrifices that first responders and their families make have an inspirational and enduring impact on all communities across the country; and
- WHEREAS: On First Responders Appreciation Day and throughout the year, Georgians are encouraged to celebrate the service and sacrifice of the first responders who make our communities the best in which to live, work, and raise a family; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim October 28, 2025, as FIRST RESPONDERS' APPRECIATION DAY in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 7th day of October in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Five.

B. P. Kemp
