

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

NATIONAL FAMILY CAREGIVERS MONTH

- WHEREAS: More than 1.26 million Georgians today serve as family caregivers for their loved ones who are older adults or living with a disability, which provides an estimated economic value of $16.3 billion to Georgia; and
- WHEREAS: One out of five family caregivers juggle everyday life tasks and work full- or part-time in addition to serving as a vital member of the care team for their loved ones. Whether it be for a senior with Alzheimer's or a child with special needs, the required attention can be non-stop; and
- WHEREAS: With the responsibility of family caregivers increasing every year, it is more essential than ever to encourage these everyday heroes to take time for self-care so they may continue their mission of providing loving care; and
- WHEREAS: The Georgia Department of Human Services' Division of Aging Services administers Older Americans Act programs and services that assist caregivers in providing home and community-based care for loved ones; and
- WHEREAS: During National Family Caregivers Month, it is important to celebrate the many contributions of caregivers and encourage communities, employers, and others to support their mission; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim November 2025, as NATIONAL FAMILY CAREGIVERS MONTH in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 6th day of November in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Five.
