A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To amend Chapter 4 of Title 1 and Title 50 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated,
2 relating to holidays and observances and state government, respectively, so as to designate
3 the fourth Friday in November of each year as "National Sugarcane Syrup Day" in Georgia;
4 to designate Brunswick stew as the official state stew; to designate cornbread as the official
5 state bread; to provide for legislative findings; to prohibit companies owned or operated by
6 a foreign country of concern from submitting a proposal for a contract with a state agency
7 for goods or services; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other
8 purposes.

9 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

10 PART I
11 SECTION 1-1.

12 The General Assembly finds that:

13 (1) Making sugarcane syrup has been a part of family farm tradition for generations,
14 particularly in Georgia;

(2) The increase in production costs, competition from artificial syrups, and the decreasing number of farmers who still make sugarcane syrup, however, has led some to refer to the making of sugarcane syrup as a dying art;

(3) Establishing a "National Sugarcane Syrup Day" in Georgia would help to preserve the art of making sugarcane syrup by honoring those who continue with this longstanding family farm tradition and by raising public awareness of the differences between natural sugarcane syrup and artificial syrups;

(4) Designating the fourth Friday in November of each year, the day after Thanksgiving, as "National Sugarcane Syrup Day" is particularly fitting, as it is not only a time when families gather and celebrate together, but also a time when some say sugarcane is at its sweetest in Georgia; and

(5) It is, therefore, abundantly fitting and proper that the State of Georgia appropriately recognize and honor the family farm tradition of making sugarcane syrup by designating the fourth Friday in November of each year as "National Sugarcane Syrup Day" in Georgia.

SECTION 1-2.

Chapter 4 of Title 1 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to holidays and observances, is amended by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

"1-4-27.

The fourth Friday in November of each year is designated as 'National Sugarcane Syrup Day' in Georgia."

PART II

SECTION 2-1.

The General Assembly of Georgia finds and determines that:

(1) Brunswick stew is a rich, thick stew noted for its signature ingredients of meat, tomatoes, and fresh vegetables, such as sweet corn;

(2) A plaque on an old iron pot in Brunswick, Georgia, declares the first Brunswick stew was made in it on July 2, 1898, on nearby St. Simons Island; and

(3) Contrary to claims by other states, Georgia, and specifically Brunswick, Georgia, is the birthplace of Brunswick stew.

SECTION 2-2.

Title 50 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to state government, is amended by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

"50-3-94.

Brunswick stew is designated as the official Georgia state stew."

PART III

SECTION 3-1.

The General Assembly finds and declares that:

(1) The colorful history and traditions of the State of Georgia are inextricably associated with the food traditions of corn, and among the many legacies of this proud heritage is the delicious bread known as cornbread;

(2) Relied upon by indigenous people to sustain themselves, cornbread has transcended its humble origins to take a place of honor at such events as the Prater's Mill Country Fair in Whitfield County;

(3) With thousands of participants and visitors, such celebrations include cornbread cooked on a wood-burning stove and served with collard greens and pinto beans;

(4) Corn is grown, ground, and made into cornmeal at historic mills like Prater's Mill, Berry College Mill, and Ogeechee River Mill and modern mills like Southeastern Mills and Logan Turnpike Mill;

(5) Cornmeal is then sold in stores and served in eating establishments throughout the state, and cornbread is enjoyed by young and old at home and in restaurants;

(6) Cornbread enjoys a singular stature in Georgia history and culture that is rivaled only by its undeniable appeal as a versatile and satisfying food; and

(7) Accordingly, it is abundantly fitting and proper that cornbread be designated as the official Georgia state bread so as to fully recognize the importance of this product to this state.

SECTION 3-2.

Title 50 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to state government, is amended by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

"50-3-95.

Cornbread is designated as the official Georgia state bread."
