

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

ASSET AWARENESS MONTH

- WHEREAS: The asset management profession provides essential services by overseeing billions of dollars in personal property across the U.S. and globally; and
- WHEREAS: Asset management professionals uphold high fiduciary standards in the identification, storage, use, redistribution, and disposal of personal property for government agencies, educational institutions, nonprofits, corporations, and other entities in compliance with laws and regulations; and
- WHEREAS: Professionals advance asset management practices through strong policies, efficient processes, sustainable methods, and modern technology to support transparency, strategic goals, and organizational missions; and
- WHEREAS: Effective asset management improves readiness, reduces waste and risk, strengthens compliance, maximizes asset value, and promotes sustainability and economic resilience in the State of Georgia; and
- WHEREAS: The State of Georgia oversees more than $11 billion in personal property and manages redistribution and disposal through the Department of Administrative Services (DOAS) Surplus Property Donation Program; and
- WHEREAS: The DOAS Surplus Property Division, as the State Agency for Surplus Property, facilitates the acquisition of state and federal surplus property for eligible recipients, saving taxpayer dollars, reducing risk, maximizing asset value, and supporting the well-being of Georgia's communities; and
- WHEREAS: During March, the DOAS Surplus Property Division promotes awareness of effective fixed asset management and the benefits of reuse, reduction, and recycling to extend the life and value of personal property; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim March 2026, as ASSET AWARENESS MONTH in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 12th day of February in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Six.
