

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

BURN AWARENESS WEEK

- WHEREAS: The CDC reported that 398,000 people received medical care for burn injuries in 2021, with 252,000 deaths from injuries related to hot objects or substances (e.g., contact burns); and
- WHEREAS: Compared to the overall population, children under five were 2.0 times as likely to be seen for burn injuries at a hospital emergency department. Young adults from 20 to 29 had 1.4 times the risk, and those in the 30-39 age group had 1.3 times the risk of the general population; and
- WHEREAS: The primary causes of injury include fire-flame, scalds, contact with hot objects, and electrical and chemicals. Many injuries occur in the workplace. Today, 96.8% of those who suffer burn injuries will survive. Unfortunately, many of those survivors will sustain serious scarring, life-long physical disabilities, adjustment difficulties; and
- WHEREAS: The theme for National Burn Awareness Week is “Burn Prevention Where You Live, Work, and Play – Preventing Burns in the Workplace,” where a common risk of injury exists from fire injury in the workplace; and
- WHEREAS: Significant research and medical advances have dramatically improved burn care and treatment, aided rehabilitation, shortened hospital stays, and increased burn survival rates. Aftercare support for the physical and emotional effects of burns has also played a key role in the successful reintegration of burn survivors into our communities. Furthermore, burn safety education and prevention efforts continue to reduce the number of people who suffer burns each year; and
- WHEREAS: Many people devote their lives and careers to treating, caring for, supporting, and rehabilitating burn injury survivors, including those performing vital work in burn research and development. There are dedicated firefighters who risk their own lives every day to protect others, as well as burn foundations and other life safety professionals who promote burn injury awareness and prevention; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim February 1-7, 2026, as BURN AWARENESS WEEK in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 13th day of January in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Six.
