

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

CORRECTIONAL NURSES WEEK

- WHEREAS: The week of May 6-12, 2026, is a special time for us to come together and recognize our incredible nurses; and
- WHEREAS: The Board of Corrections honors the unwavering dedication of our nurses. They work tirelessly every day to meet the diverse health care needs of people across our state, whether in hospitals, clinics, prisons, jails, doctor's offices, nursing homes, or private agencies; and
- WHEREAS: Our nurses are the heart of our health care system, providing safe, high-quality, and compassionate care. Their professionalism and empathy shine brightly as they continually seek to improve their skills and enhance the services they provide; and
- WHEREAS: Those who work in correctional settings play a particularly crucial role. They deliver essential care to individuals who face higher risks of infectious diseases, mental health challenges, and chronic medical conditions—all while responding to urgent health issues that require immediate attention; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim May 6-12, 2026, as CORRECTIONAL NURSES WEEK in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 24th day of March in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Six.
