

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

GEORGIA AGRICULTURE DAY

WHEREAS: American farms remind us of the beauty and generosity of our Nation, and with each new planting season, they embody the possibilities in America. We recognize the unique and irreplaceable value that farmers, ranchers, foresters, farm workers, and all stewards of God's Creations contribute to our Nation's past, present and future; and

WHEREAS: America's agricultural sector safeguards our Nation's lands through sustainable management; ensures the health and safety of animals, plants, and people; and provides a safe and abundant food supply which plays an important role in our National Security; and

WHEREAS: The American farmer has always been a national symbol of strength and strong moral fiber. A common spirit across the agriculture community is the commitment to never giving up, even when the going gets tough. They display ingenuity in times of prosperity, and perseverance in the face of hardships. All while providing our state, the nation, and the world, year in and year out, with an abundance of high-quality agricultural goods and products; and

WHEREAS: We recognize Georgia's leadership role in agriculture and the culture of innovation and entrepreneurship that drives the agriculture industry, rural communities and farm families around the State; and

WHEREAS: Agriculture is Georgia's largest and most vital industry. We acknowledge the leadership of Georgia farm families in adopting new technologies and management practices to produce food, fuel and other products more efficiently and sustainably; now

THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim March 24, 2026, as GEORGIA AGRICULTURE DAY in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 15th day of January in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Six.
