

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

INTERNATIONAL CREDIT UNION DAY

- WHEREAS: Credit unions are not-for-profit financial cooperatives, democratically owned and operated and founded by people working together toward economic advancement; and
- WHEREAS: Credit unions embrace a “people-helping-people” philosophy through the pooling of personal resources and leadership abilities for the good of the cooperative, empowering members to improve their financial futures and uniting to help those in need; and
- WHEREAS: Credit unions have demonstrated outstanding leadership throughout the communities in which they have served since they were founded more than 150 years ago. Moreover, credit unions have championed the idea that people from all walks of life should have access to affordable financial services offered by credit unions; and
- WHEREAS: Credit unions empower people to improve their economic situations in 100 nations around the world at more than 67,000 credit unions that serve the financial needs of 400 million members, including 2.3 million, in Georgia associated through local, state, regional and international organizations sharing the same commitment to serving credit union members; and
- WHEREAS: Credit unions are developing strong alliances that make financial democracy possible in many countries throughout the world; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim October 15, 2026, as INTERNATIONAL CREDIT UNION DAY in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 3rd day of September in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Six.
