

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

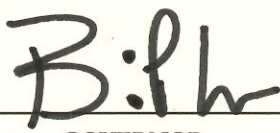

A PROCLAMATION

PREGNANCY AND INFANT LOSS REMEMBRANCE DAY

- WHEREAS: Pregnancy and infant loss through miscarriage, stillbirth, premature birth, neonatal death, and other causes affects thousands of families each year, leaving a lasting impact on parents, siblings, grandparents, and loved ones; and
- WHEREAS: The loss of a pregnancy or infant can bring profound grief, and families experiencing such loss deserve compassion, understanding, and support as they navigate an incredibly difficult time; and
- WHEREAS: Raising awareness of pregnancy and infant loss helps ensure that grieving families know they are not alone while encouraging open conversations, greater understanding, and access to supportive resources; and
- WHEREAS: Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month is observed each October, providing an opportunity to honor the lives of babies lost too soon and recognize the enduring love their families carry with them; and
- WHEREAS: Pregnancy and Infant Loss Remembrance Day, observed annually on October 15, offers Georgians an opportunity to remember these precious lives and stand alongside the families whose lives have been forever changed by such loss; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim October 15, 2026, as PREGNANCY AND INFANT LOSS REMEMBRANCE DAY in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 5th day of October in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Six.

GOVERNOR

ATTEST

CHIEF OF STAFF