

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

WORLD HUMANITARIAN DAY

- WHEREAS: Humanitarian service embodies the highest ideals of compassion, selflessness, and civic responsibility, and serves as a powerful testament to the enduring principle that communities are strengthened when individuals answer the call to serve others during times of adversity, uncertainty, and need; and
- WHEREAS: World Humanitarian Day provides an opportunity to recognize and celebrate the countless individuals whose unwavering commitment alleviates suffering, and advances the dignity and of people throughout our communities; and
- WHEREAS: The American Red Cross of Georgia has distinguished itself as an indispensable humanitarian institution whose volunteers and professional staff stand prepared at all hours to provide disaster relief, blood services, emergency preparedness education, support for military members and their families, and assistance to individuals and communities confronting lifes most challenging circumstances; and
- WHEREAS: Through its steadfast commitment to humanity, voluntary service, unity, and universality, the American Red Cross of Georgia has become a trusted beacon of hope and resilience for communities across the State of Georgia; and
- WHEREAS: The dedicated volunteers, donors, and partners of the American Red Cross of Georgia collectively demonstrate that extraordinary acts of kindness and service possess the transformative power to unite communities, strengthen civic bonds, and inspire future generations to embrace lives of purpose and compassion; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim August 19, 2026 as WORLD HUMANITARIAN DAY in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 24th day of June in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Six.

B. Kemp

GOVERNOR

ATTEST

Laura M. Curry

CHIEF OF STAFF