

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

NAVY RECRUITING DISTRICT ATLANTA CHANGE OF COMMAND

- WHEREAS: The United States Navy was founded by the Second Continental Congress on October 13, 1775, and has served our nation with honor and distinction from the American Revolution to World Wars I and II, and currently in the War on Terrorism; and
- WHEREAS: The State of Georgia is proud of its history with the United States Navy. It hosts the Navy Information Operations Command Georgia, Navy Recruiting District Atlanta, and the Navy Submarine Base at Kings Bay; and
- WHEREAS: We are forever proud of the work of the men and women in the Navy. Our Navy protects our way of life and we thank our Sailors, Navy civilians, and families for making the U.S. Navy the global force that protects freedom around the globe; and
- WHEREAS: Our Sailors are taught courage and versatility as they meet challenges in their missions. Preventing wars is just as important as winning them. Therefore, the Navy's other duty is to return peace and stability after conflict and provide medical care for those in need; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim March 8, 2019, as the official CHANGE OF COMMAND ceremony and congratulate Commander, Steven J. Schultz as he assumes the helm as Commanding Officer, Navy Recruiting District Atlanta.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 1st day of March in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Nineteen.
