

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

UNIVERSITY SYSTEM OF GEORGIA STUDENT ADVISORY COUNCIL DAY

- WHEREAS: On March 13, 1968, Chancellor George L. Simpson Jr. recommended that the Board of Regents establish a University System Student Advisory Council. This council was to be composed of all the student body presidents within the University System. Today, the Student Advisory Council represents over 325,000 students attending 26 institutions across the State of Georgia; and
- WHEREAS: The Board of Regents felt that the formation of the Student Advisory Council would further enhance student government organizations while creating responsible student leadership within the University System; and
- WHEREAS: The Student Advisory Council provides a platform for communication between the students of the University System of Georgia and the Chancellor of the System, Board of Regents, state government, news media, and the public concerning important issues to the students; and
- WHEREAS: The University System of Georgia's Student Advisory Council has made significant contributions to college communities throughout Georgia; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim February 14, 2019, as UNIVERSITY SYSTEM OF GEORGIA STUDENT ADVISORY COUNCIL DAY at the State Capitol in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 8th day of February in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Nineteen.
