Senate Bill 111
By: Senator Kirk of the 13th

AS PASSED

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

To provide that the judge of the Probate Court of Dooly County shall also serve as the chief magistrate of the Magistrate Court of Dooly County on or after January 1, 2021, or upon vacancy of the office of chief magistrate, whichever occurs first; to provide for the continuation in office and expiration of term of the current chief magistrate; to provide for the compensation of such judge for service as chief magistrate; to provide for nonpartisan elections to the combined position of probate judge and chief magistrate; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

Pursuant to subsection (g) of Code Section 15-10-20 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, the chief magistrate of the Magistrate Court of Dooly County shall not be separately elected or appointed for any term of office that begins on or after January 1, 2021, but on and after that date the judge of the Probate Court of Dooly County shall serve as the chief magistrate of the Magistrate Court of Dooly County. There shall be no election or appointment in 2020 or thereafter for the office of chief magistrate judge of the Magistrate Court of Dooly County. The term of office of the judge serving as chief magistrate shall be concurrent with such judge's term of office as the judge of the probate court.

SECTION 2.

Effective upon the date the judge of the probate court assumes the duties of the chief magistrate judge, the judge of the Probate Court of Dooly County shall receive a supplement for service as chief magistrate judge in an amount to be fixed by the governing authority of Dooly County in addition to any compensation received for service as judge of the probate court. Such supplement shall not be less than the minimum amount provided by any general law for additional service by a judge of the probate court as chief magistrate.
SECTION 3.

The chief magistrate of the Magistrate Court of Dooly County who is serving as such on the effective date of this Act shall continue to serve as chief magistrate for the remainder of his or her current term of office. During such time period, the current chief magistrate shall continue to receive the same salary he or she is receiving for performing such duties as fixed by the governing authority of Dooly County. However, if the office of chief magistrate becomes vacant prior to expiration of the current term, the probate judge shall immediately begin to serve as chief magistrate.

SECTION 4.

Associate magistrates, if any, shall be selected by the probate judge and shall be appointed to take office on January 1, 2021. Such magistrates shall serve four-year terms and until their respective successors are appointed and qualified.

SECTION 5.

All elections for the office of probate judge of Dooly County, who also serves as chief magistrate of the Magistrate Court of Dooly County, conducted after the effective date of this Act shall be nonpartisan elections as provided for in Code Section 21-2-139 of the O.C.G.A. Such nonpartisan elections shall be conducted at the general nonpartisan election immediately preceding the expiration of the term of such office and conducted as provided in Chapter 2 of Title 21, of the O.C.G.A., the "Georgia Election Code."

SECTION 6.

All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
