Senate Bill 83
By: Senators Mullis of the 53rd, Miller of the 49th, Dugan of the 30th, Albers of the 56th, Gooch of the 51st and others

AS PASSED

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

To amend Title 20 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to education, so as to revise provisions relating to elective courses in History and Literature of the Old and New Testament Eras in elementary and secondary education; to establish the Realizing Educational Achievement Can Happen (REACH) Scholarship Program; to provide for a short title; to provide for definitions; to provide for scholarship eligibility and requirements; to provide for participation of local school systems; to provide for continuing eligibility; to provide for funding; to provide for the establishment of a foundation; to provide for rules and regulations; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.
Title 20 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to education, is amended by revising Code Section 20-2-148, relating to elective courses in History and Literature of the Old and New Testament Eras in elementary and secondary education, as follows:

"20-2-148. (a)(1) All public schools with grade nine or above may make available to eligible students in grades nine through 12 an elective course in:
(A) In the History and Literature of the Old Testament Era; and an elective course in:
(B) In the History and Literature of the New Testament Era;
(C) On the Hebrew Scriptures, Old Testament of the Bible;
(D) On the New Testament of the Bible; and
(2) The purpose of such courses shall be to accommodate the rights and desires of those teachers and students who wish to teach and study the Old and New Testaments and to familiarize students with the contents of the Old and New Testaments, the history recorded by the Old and New Testaments, the literary style and structure of the Old and New Testaments, the customs and cultures of the peoples and societies recorded in the\n\nS. B. 83
- 1 -"
Old and New Testaments, and the influence of the Old and New Testaments upon law, history, government, literature, art, music, customs, morals, values, and culture:

(A) Teach students knowledge of biblical content, characters, poetry, and narratives that are prerequisites to understanding contemporary society and culture, including literature, art, music, mores, oratory, and public policy; and

(B) Familiarize students with, as applicable:

(i) The contents of the Hebrew Scriptures or New Testament;

(ii) The history of the Hebrew Scriptures or New Testament;

(iii) The literary style and structure of the Hebrew Scriptures or New Testament; and

(iv) The influence of the Hebrew Scriptures or New Testament on law, history, government, literature, art, music, customs, morals, values, and culture.

(3) A student shall not be required to use a specific translation as the sole text of the Hebrew Scriptures or New Testament.

(b)(1) No later than February 1, 2007, the State Board of Education shall adopt a curriculum content standards for each course, including objectives, and reading materials, and lesson plans, which has been are prepared in accordance with the requirements of this subsection.

(2) The book or collection of books commonly known as the Old Testament shall be the basic text for the course in the History and Literature of the Old Testament Era, and the book or collection of books commonly known as the New Testament shall be the basic text for the course in the History and Literature of the New Testament Era. In addition, students may be assigned a range of reading materials for the courses, including selections from secular historical and cultural works and selections from other religious and cultural traditions. The content standards for the courses shall familiarize students with the customs and cultures of the times and places referred to in the Old and New Testaments. The content standards for the courses shall familiarize the students with the methods and tools of writing at the times the Old and New Testament books were written, the means by which they were preserved, the languages in which they were written and into which they were translated, and the historical and cultural events which led to the translation of the Old and New Testaments into the English language. The local board of education may recommend which version of the Old or New Testament may be used in the course; provided, however, that the teacher of the course shall not be required to adopt that recommendation but may use the recommended version or another version. No student shall be required to use one version as the sole text of the Old or New Testament. If a student desires to use as the basic text a different version of the Old or New Testament from that chosen by the local board of education or teacher, he or she shall be permitted to do so.
(3) The courses provided for in this Code section shall:

(A) Be taught in an objective and nondevotional manner with no attempt made to indoctrinate students as to either the truth or falsity of the biblical materials or texts from other religious or cultural traditions;

(B) Not include teaching of religious doctrine or sectarian interpretation of the Bible or of texts from other religious or cultural traditions; and

(C) Not disparage or encourage a commitment to a set of religious beliefs.

c) The provisions of this chapter relating to personnel employed by local units of administration, including without limitation certification requirements, employment, and supervision, shall apply to persons who teach the courses provided for in this Code section. In addition, no person shall be assigned to teach such courses based in whole or in part on any religious test, profession of faith or lack thereof, prior or present religious affiliation or lack of affiliation, or criteria involving particular beliefs or lack thereof about the Bible. Except for these requirements, the qualifications and training of teachers shall be determined by the local boards of education.

d) On and after July 1, 2007, for the purpose of earning Carnegie unit curriculum credits at the high school level, satisfactory completion of the course in the History and Literature of the Old Testament Era shall be accepted by the State Board of Education for one-half unit of elective credit, and satisfactory completion of the course in the History and Literature of the New Testament Era any of the courses described in subsection (a) of this Code section shall be accepted by the State Board of Education for one-half unit of elective credit; provided, however, that such courses are taught in strict compliance with the requirements of this Code section.

e) A local board of education may make such arrangements for monitoring the content and teaching of the course in the History and Literature of the Old Testament Era and the course in the History and Literature of the New Testament Era any of the courses described in subsection (a) of this Code section as it deems appropriate.

f) Nothing in this Code section shall be construed to limit the authority of a local board of education to offer courses regarding the Old Testament or the New Testament that are not in compliance with this Code section; provided, however, that no state funds distributed pursuant to this article shall be expended in connection with such a course that does not meet the requirements of this Code section.

g) Nothing in this Code section shall be construed to prohibit local boards of education from offering elective courses based upon the books of other religions or societies. In determining whether to offer such courses, the local board may consider various factors, including, but not limited to, student and parent demand for such courses and the impact such books have had upon history and culture.
(h) A course offered under this Code section shall follow applicable law and all federal and state guidelines in maintaining religious neutrality and accommodating the diverse religious views, traditions, and perspectives of students in the school. A course under this Code section shall not endorse, favor, or promote, or disfavor or show hostility toward, any particular religion or nonreligious faith or religious perspective. The State Board of Education, in complying with this Code section, shall not violate any provision of the United States Constitution or federal law, the Georgia Constitution or any state law, or any administrative regulations of the United States Department of Education or the Georgia Department of Education."

SECTION 2.

Said title is further amended in Article 7 of Chapter 3, relating to scholarships, loans, and grants for postsecondary education, by adding a new part to read as follows:

"Part 4

20-3-495. This part shall be known and may be cited as the 'Realizing Educational Achievement Can Happen (REACH) Scholarship Act.'

20-3-496. As used in this part, the term:

(1) 'Realizing Educational Achievement Can Happen (REACH) Scholarship Program' or 'scholarship program' means the needs-based mentoring and scholarship program established pursuant to this part to provide promising students the support to graduate from high school and achieve postsecondary educational success.

(2) 'REACH participating school system' means a local school system that meets the requirements of Code Section 20-3-498.

(3) 'REACH scholar' means a student in a REACH participating school system who has been nominated and approved to participate in the scholarship program.

20-3-497. The Realizing Educational Achievement Can Happen (REACH) Scholarship Program is hereby established. The scholarship program shall provide scholarships and support to eligible students who meet the following requirements:

(1) Be a United States citizen or an eligible noncitizen for 12 consecutive months prior to the first day of classes of the spring term of the student's seventh grade school year;
(2) Be enrolled in a REACH participating school system;
(3) Qualify for the federal free or reduced lunch program;
(4) Not have had more than two in-school suspensions during the two semesters or four quarters immediately preceding the spring term of the student's seventh grade year;
(5) Not have any criminal or drug-related convictions;
(6) Not have more than five days of unexcused absences during any of the student's middle school calendar years;
(7) Have his or her parents or guardians complete and submit a release of information form, as part of the application process, authorizing the school to provide the authority information related to the student's participation in the program; and
(8) Demonstrate academic promise, as defined by the authority, taking into consideration grades, attendance, and behavior.

20-3-498.
Local school systems interested in becoming a REACH participating school system shall complete the REACH Scholarship Program application, and provide detailed descriptions of how program requirements will be met, including, but not limited to, how the local school system will:
(1) Identify the REACH coordinator;
(2) Establish a mentor program or utilize an existing local program;
(3) Identify the academic coach to monitor REACH scholars' academics, behavior, and attendance, as well as their transition from middle school to high school; and
(4) Develop plans to engage the community and sustain the program financially and programmatically.

20-3-499.
(a) REACH participating school systems shall select each student for the program in the spring of the student's seventh grade year or in the fall of his or her eighth grade year, for participation beginning in the eighth grade year. REACH participating school systems shall develop a rigorous application process to select REACH scholars, including but not limited to:
(1) Identifying all students eligible for federal free or reduced price lunch by:
(A) Completing the Application for Free and Reduced Price School Meals form from the Georgia Department of Education; or
(B) Direct certification by meeting one of the following criteria:
   (i) Live in a family unit receiving SNAP (Food Stamp) benefits;
   (ii) Live in a family unit receiving TANF benefits;

S. B. 83
- 5 -
(iii) Identify as homeless;
(iv) Identify as foster; or
(v) Identify as migrant;

(2) Nominating qualified students to apply. Nominations can be made by counselors, principals, superintendents, or any individual within the REACH participating school system who is able to identify students most in need of the REACH scholarship;

(3) Requiring nominated students to complete the REACH student application, which includes an academic recommendation and a community recommendation;

(4) Reviewing student packets, including the nomination form, proof of eligibility for federal free or reduced lunch, citizenship and residency requirements, and grade, attendance, and discipline reports; and

(5) Interviewing all nominated students by a student selection committee established by the REACH participating school system.

(b) REACH participating school systems shall be eligible to designate the following number of REACH scholars:

(1) For school systems with five or more high schools, 12 REACH scholars; and

(2) For school systems with less than five high schools, seven REACH scholars.

20-3-499.1.

(a) To maintain eligibility during middle school and high school, a REACH scholar shall:

(A) Maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5 or better as calculated by the REACH participating school system, if the REACH scholar is in middle school; or

(B) Maintain a secondary cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5 as calculated by the authority in the same manner as the high school grade point average for initial HOPE scholarship eligibility;

(2) Adhere to the REACH participating school system's stated attendance policy and attend classes regularly. A REACH scholar will be placed on probation for one semester after reaching five or more combined excused and unexcused absences in one semester. While on probation, the REACH scholar may be removed from the program if he or she has any additional unexcused absences or three or more excused absences;

(3) Adhere to the REACH participating school system's stated disciplinary policy. A REACH scholar will be placed on probation for one semester if he or she receives more than one in-school suspension per semester or immediately upon an out-of-school suspension. While on probation, the REACH scholar may be removed from the program if he or she has an additional suspension;
(4) Remain drug and alcohol-free. A REACH scholar convicted of committing a felony or misdemeanor involving marijuana, controlled substances, or dangerous drugs, is immediately ineligible for further participation in the scholarship program. A REACH scholar who fails to comply with the REACH participating school system's drug and alcohol policies will be immediately ineligible for further participation in the scholarship program;

(5) Meet with his or her assigned REACH mentor a minimum of eight times per semester;

(6) Meet with his or her assigned REACH academic coach a minimum of four times per semester;

(7) Attend REACH program activities;

(8) Graduate from high school; and

(9) Enroll in a University System of Georgia or Technical College System of Georgia institution or an eligible private postsecondary educational institution.

(b) To maintain eligibility during college, a REACH scholar shall:

(1) Be enrolled full-time at an eligible postsecondary institution;

(2) Maintain a minimum 2.0 grade point average and satisfactory academic progress, as determined by the authority;

(3) Complete and submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) each year of college; and

(4) Not be in default on a federal or state educational loan or owe a refund to a federal or state student financial aid program.

20-3-499.2.

(a) Subject to available funding, the authority will provide $10,000.00 for each REACH scholar for the first year of the REACH participating school system's participation in the scholarship program.

(b) Each year thereafter, the REACH participating school system will be responsible for providing a proportionate share of the scholarship. The REACH participating school system's proportionate share shall be based on the tier designated by the Department of Community Affairs pursuant to Code Section 48-7-40 for the county in which the school system is located and the population of such county, according to the United States decennial census of 2010 or any future such census. The term of the tier designation shall be five years; provided, however, that in any subsequent year within the five-year designation period in which the county of the local school system is designated with a lower tier, a REACH participating school system may reduce its tier designation commensurately and utilize such designation for the remainder of the five-year period.
Through Fiscal Year 2022, the 2016 Department of Community Affairs tier designation shall be used to define the proportionate share, as adjusted pursuant to the foregoing. The REACH participating school system's proportionate share shall be as follows:

(1) A proportionate share of $1,000.00 per REACH scholar for:
   (A) Tier 1 counties; and
   (B) Tier 2 counties with populations equal to or less than 20,000;

(2) A proportionate share of $2,000.00 per REACH scholar for:
   (A) Tier 2 counties with populations greater than 20,000; and
   (B) Tier 3 counties with populations equal to or less than 20,000;

(3) A proportionate share of $3,000.00 per REACH scholar for tier 3 counties with populations greater than 20,000; and

(4) A proportionate share of $4,000.00 per REACH scholar for tier 4 counties.

(c) Any county in which there are three or more school systems eligible to participate in the REACH program shall be permitted to provide to each REACH participating school system within the county a one-tier reduction, unless that county's tier designation is tier 1.

The authority may establish and operate a nonprofit corporation in accordance with subparagraph (a)(1)(Y) of Code Section 20-3-316, to be designated as the REACH Georgia Foundation. The purpose of the foundation shall be to accept private donations from individuals, charitable foundations, and corporations to provide funding for the scholarship program established pursuant to this part to ensure that Georgia's low-income, academically promising students have the academic, social, and financial support needed to graduate from high school, access postsecondary education, and achieve postsecondary success. The foundation may identify, through strategic planning, other targeted fundraising and grant funding opportunities to support the purpose of the foundation.

The authority shall develop rules, guidelines, application forms, and application procedures necessary to implement the provisions of this part.

SECTION 3.

All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.