23 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

24 PART I
25 SECTION 1-1.

26 Title 19 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to domestic relations, is 27 amended by revising Code Section 19-5-12, relating to the form of judgment and decree, as 28 follows:

29 "19-5-12.

30 (a) A final judgment of divorce shall be prepared so as to conform to the pleadings and the 31 evidence and may restore a maiden or prior name, if requested. It shall be prepared in form
32 substantially as follows:

33 FINAL JUDGMENT AND DECREE

34 Upon consideration of this case, upon evidence submitted as provided by law, it is the 35 judgment of the court that a total divorce be granted, that is to say, a divorce a vinculo
36 matrimonii, between the parties to the above stated case upon legal principles.

37 It is considered, ordered, and decreed by the court that the marriage contract heretofore
38 entered into between the parties to this case, from and after this date, be and is set aside
39 and dissolved as fully and effectually as if no such contract had ever been made or 40 entered into.

41 Petitioner and Respondent in the future shall be held and considered as separate and 42 distinct ~~persons~~ individuals altogether unconnected by any nuptial union or civil contract
43 whatsoever and both shall have the right to remarry.

44 Decree and order entered this _____ day of _____, _____.

45 _____
46 Judge, Superior Court'

47 (b) ~~When~~ Where applicable, any one or more of the following clauses shall be included
48 in the form of the judgment:

49 The court restores to (Petitioner/Respondent) his/her prior or maiden name, to wit:
50 _____.

51 The court awards custody of the children of the parties as follows:
52 _____.

53 The court fixes alimony as follows:
54 _____.

55 (c) In any case which involves the determination of child support, the form of the 56 judgment shall also include ~~provisions indicating both parents' income, the number of~~
57 ~~children for which support is being provided, the presumptive amount of child support~~
58 ~~award calculation, and, if the presumptive amount of child support is rebutted, the award~~
59 ~~amount and the basis for the rebuttal award~~ all of the information set forth in paragraph (2)
60 of subsection (c) of Code Section 19-6-15. The final judgment shall have attached to it the

61 child support worksheet containing the calculation of the final award of child support and 62 ~~Schedule E pertaining to deviations~~ any schedule that was prepared for the purpose of 63 calculating the amount of child support. The final judgment shall specify a sum certain 64 amount of child support to be paid.

65 (d) ~~When~~ Where applicable, the court shall also include in the ~~order~~ the provisions of Code
 66 ~~Section 19-6-30 concerning continuing garnishment for support and language in~~
 67 ~~compliance with Code Section 19-6-32 concerning income deduction orders~~ final judgment
 68 the ability to use income deduction orders as set forth in Code Sections 19-6-30 and 69 19-6-32."

70 SECTION 1-2.

71 Said title is further amended by revising Code Section 19-6-14, relating to child support and 72 custody pending final divorce, as follows:

73 "19-6-14.

74 Pending a final judgment in an action for divorce, the judge presiding may grant as ~~alimony~~
 75 temporary child support a sum sufficient for the support of the children of the parties in 76 accordance with Code Section 19-6-15. The judge may also hear and determine who shall 77 be entitled to the care and custody of the children until the final judgment in the case. If 78 a sum is awarded for the support of the children, the party who is required to pay the 79 support shall not be liable to third persons for necessaries furnished to the children."

80 SECTION 1-3.

81 Said title is further amended by revising paragraph (6.1) of subsection (a) of Code Section
 82 19-6-15, relating to child support in final verdict or decree, as follows:

83 "(6.1) 'Child support services' means the ~~agency~~ entity within the Department of Human 84 Services ~~which provides and administers child support services~~ and its contractors that 85 are authorized to enforce a duty of support."

86 SECTION 1-4.

87 Said title is further amended in subsection (b) of Code Section 19-6-15, relating to child
 88 support in final verdict or decree, by deleting "and" at the end of paragraph (10), by replacing
 89 the period with "; and" at the end of paragraph (11), and by adding a new paragraph to read
 90 as follows:

91 "(12) When there is more than one child for whom support is being determined, the court
 92 shall establish the amount of support and the duration of such support in accordance with 93 subsection (e) of this Code section. Separate worksheets shall be utilized for such

94 determination and shall be attached to the final child support order. Such order shall 95 contain findings as required by law."

96 SECTION 1-5.

97 Said title is further amended by revising subparagraphs (c)(2)(A), (c)(2)(B), and (c)(2)(C)
 98 of Code Section 19-6-15, relating to child support in final verdict or decree, as follows:

99 "(A) Specify in what sum certain amount, the duration of such support, and from which 100 parent the child is entitled to permanent support as determined by use of the worksheet
 101 or multiple worksheets when there is more than one minor child;

102 (B) Specify ~~as required by Code Section 19-5-12~~ in what manner, how often, to whom,
 103 and until when the support shall be paid;

104 (C) Include a written finding of each ~~the~~ parent's gross income as determined by the 105 court or the jury;"

106 SECTION 1-6.

107 Said title is further amended by revising subparagraph (i)(2)(K) of Code Section 19-6-15,
 108 relating to child support in final verdict or decree, as follows:

109 "(K) Parenting time.

110 (i) The child support obligation table is based upon expenditures for a child in intact
 111 households. The court may order or the jury may find by special interrogatory a
 112 deviation from the presumptive amount of child support when special circumstances 113 make the presumptive amount of child support excessive or inadequate due to 114 extended parenting time as set forth in the order of visitation, ~~or when~~ the child 115 resides residing with both parents equally, or visitation rights not being utilized.

116 (ii) If the court or the jury determines that a parenting time deviation is applicable,
 117 then such deviation shall be included with all other deviations ~~and be treated as a~~
 118 deduction.

119 (iii) In accordance with subsection (d) of Code Section 19-11-8, if any action or 120 claim for parenting time or a parenting time deviation is brought under this 121 subparagraph, it shall be an action or claim solely between the custodial parent and 122 the noncustodial parent, and not any third parties, including child support services."

123 SECTION 1-7.

124 Said title is further amended by revising subsection (l) of Code Section 19-6-15, relating to 125 child support in final verdict or decree, as follows:

126 "(l) Split parenting. In cases of split parenting, a worksheet shall be prepared separately 127 for the by each custodial parent for each child for whom ~~the father~~ such parent is the

128 custodial parent ~~and for the child for whom the mother is the custodial parent~~, and that 129 worksheet shall be filed with the clerk of court. For each split parenting custodial situation, 130 the court shall determine:

- 131 (1) Which parent is the obligor;
- 132 (2) The presumptive amount of child support;
- 133 (3) The actual award of child support, if different from the presumptive amount of child 134 support;
- 135 (4) How and when the sum certain amount of child support owed shall be paid; and
- 136 (5) Any other child support responsibilities for each parent."

137 SECTION 1-8.

138 Said title is further amended by revising paragraph (1) of subsection (m) of Code Section
 139 19-6-15, relating to child support in the final verdict or decree, as follows:

140 "(1) Schedules and worksheets shall be prepared by the parties for purposes of 141 calculating the amount of child support. In child support services cases in which neither 142 parent prepared a worksheet, the court may rely on the worksheet prepared by child
 143 support services as a basis for its order. Information from the schedules shall be entered 144 on the child support worksheet. The child support ~~worksheet and, if there are any~~
 145 ~~deviations, Schedule E worksheets and any schedule that was prepared for the purpose~~
 146 of calculating the amount of child support shall be attached to the final court order or 147 judgment; provided, however, that any order entered pursuant to Code Section 19-13-4
 148 shall not be required to have such ~~worksheet and schedule~~ worksheets and schedules
 149 attached thereto."

150 SECTION 1-9.

151 Said title is further amended by revising Code Section 19-6-17, relating to application for 152 child support following custody award, as follows:

153 "19-6-17.

154 (a) Whenever the custody of a minor child ~~or children~~ has been lawfully awarded by any 155 court having jurisdiction thereof to:

- 156 (1) Any ~~person~~ individual other than a parent of ~~the children~~ such child at any time
 157 subsequent to the rendition of a final divorce decree between the ~~father and mother of the~~ 158 ~~children~~ parents of such child; or
- 159 (2) A parent as part of the final divorce decree ~~where~~ when the court awarding the decree
 160 was unable to obtain jurisdiction over the parent without custody for purposes of a 161 determination as to whether the parent should be bound for support of ~~the child or~~

162 ~~children~~ such child and the court's decree contains no specific provisions binding the 163 parent without custody for the support of ~~the child or children~~ such child, 164 the parent or other ~~person~~ individual to whom the custody of ~~the child or children~~ such 165 child is awarded may apply by petition to the superior court in the county where the parent
 166 without custody of ~~the child or children~~ such child resides for an order and judgment fixing 167 the amount of support money that the parent without custody shall provide in order to 168 fulfill the parent's natural duty to supply the necessities of life for ~~the child or children~~
 169 such child.

170 (b) The procedure provided for in this Code section shall be available in cases in which 171 the parent with custody of ~~the children~~ such child is the petitioner, notwithstanding the fact
 172 that the divorce decree and judgment may have been rendered in favor of the parent 173 without custody.

174 (c) The petition shall be served upon the respondent; ~~it~~. The petition shall be heard by the 175 court; unless a jury trial is demanded by either party to the case. The judgment shall be 176 reviewable as in other cases. The order or judgment shall likewise be subject to 177 modification in the event of changed circumstances, under the same terms and conditions
 178 as are provided for in other cases of ~~permanent alimony for the support of children~~ child
 179 support granted in connection with the rendition of a final decree in divorce cases.

180 (d) The order and judgment of the court shall remain in effect, except as limited by its own
 181 restrictions and subsection (c) of this Code section, so long as the petitioner remains in 182 lawful custody of ~~the child or children~~ such child and until ~~they become~~ such child
 183 becomes 18 years of age. Execution may be granted to the petitioner for any sums past due
 184 under the order and judgment, in accordance with procedures in other cases of judgments
 185 for alimony.

186 (e) Any payment or installment of support under any child support order is, on and after 187 the date due:

- 188 (1) A judgment by operation of law, with the full force and effect and attributes of a 189 judgment of this state, including the ability to be enforced;
- 190 (2) Entitled as a judgment to full faith and credit; and
- 191 (3) Not subject to retroactive modification."

192 SECTION 1-10.

193 Said title is further amended by revising subsection (c) of Code Section 19-6-29, relating to 194 inclusion of accident and sickness insurance coverage in order for child support and payroll
 195 deductions, as follows:

196 "(c) An order for payroll deduction entered pursuant to subsection (b) of this Code section
197 shall be consistent with the provisions of Code Sections 19-6-30 through ~~19-6-33~~ 19-6-33.1."

198 SECTION 1-11.

199 Said title is further amended by revising Code Section 19-6-30, relating to provision for 200 collection by continuing garnishment for support, as follows:

201 "19-6-30.

202 (a) Any order of support of a child entered or modified on or after July 1, 1985, shall 203 contain the following provision:

204 'Whenever, in violation of the terms of this order there shall have been a failure to make 205 the support payments due hereunder so that the amount unpaid is equal to or greater than 206 the amount payable for one month, the payments required to be made may be collected
207 by the process of continuing garnishment for support.'

208 ~~(b) Any order of support entered or modified prior to July 1, 1985, shall be construed as 209 a matter of law to contain the provision set forth in subsection (a) of this Code section.~~

210 ~~(c)~~(b) All Title IV-D (child support recovery) cases involving orders of support of a child
211 or spouse ~~entered or modified prior to July 1, 1989, or thereafter~~ being enforced by the 212 entity within the Department of Human Services and its contractors that are authorized to 213 enforce support orders shall be subject to income deduction as ~~defined in Code Sections~~
214 ~~19-6-31, 19-6-32, and 19-6-33~~ orders as set forth in Code Sections 19-6-32 through 215 19-6-33.1."

216 SECTION 1-12.

217 Said title is further amended by revising Code Section 19-6-31, relating to definitions, as 218 follows:

265 (7) 'Obligor' means the individual owing a duty of support.

266 (8) 'Payor' means the person that provides earnings to an obligor.

267 ~~(a)(b)(1)~~ Except as provided for in paragraph (1) of subsection ~~(a.1)~~ (c) of this Code
 268 section, upon the entry of a judgment or order establishing, enforcing, or modifying a 269 child support obligation or spousal support obligation through a court ~~or an administrative~~ 270 ~~process~~, a separate income deduction order ~~for income deduction~~, if one has not been 271 previously entered, shall be entered. If the obligee is an applicant for child support
 272 services under ~~Title IV-D of the federal Social Security Act, the court, referee, or~~ 273 ~~administrative law judge IV-D, the obligee~~ shall furnish copies of the support order and 274 the income deduction order to the ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement agency.

275 (2) For all child support orders, and spousal support orders enforced pursuant to 276 subsection (d) of Code Section 19-11-6, the ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement agency shall 277 be authorized to issue an ~~order for~~ income deduction order without need for any 278 amendment to the order involved or any further action by ~~the court or entity~~ a court that
 279 issued it, provided that an opportunity for a hearing before a court, ~~a referee of the court,~~
 280 ~~or an administrative law judge~~ is afforded. The ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement agency
 281 shall also be authorized to issue a National Medical Support Notice to enforce the 282 medical support provisions of such orders, provided that an opportunity for a hearing
 283 pursuant to Code Section 19-11-27 is afforded. Such orders or notices may be issued
 284 electronically by the ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement agency. The ~~IV-D~~ child support
 285 enforcement agency shall issue an ~~order for~~ income deduction order or, when appropriate,
 286 a National Medical Support Notice within two business days after the information
 287 regarding a newly hired employee is entered into the centralized employee registry
 288 pursuant to Code Section 19-11-9.2 and matched with an obligor in a case being enforced
 289 by the ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement agency.

290 ~~(3) All child support orders issued or modified before July 1, 1997, which are not~~
 291 ~~otherwise subject to income deduction shall become subject to income deduction upon~~ 292 ~~the accrual of the equivalent of a 30 day arrearage, without the need for an administrative~~ 293 ~~or judicial hearing or order.~~

294 ~~(a.1)(1)(c)(1)(A)~~ All child support orders which are initially issued in this state on or
 295 after January 1, 1994, and are not at the time of issuance being enforced by the ~~IV-D~~
 296 child support enforcement agency shall provide for the immediate withholding of such 297 support from the ~~income and~~ earnings of the ~~person~~ individual required by that order 298 to furnish support unless:

299 ~~(A)(i)~~ A The court issuing the order finds there is good cause not to require such 300 immediate withholding; or

301 ~~(B)(ii)~~ A written agreement is reached between both parties which provides for an 302 alternative arrangement.

303 ~~(B)~~ For purposes of this ~~paragraph~~ subsection, any finding that there is good cause not 304 to require withholding ~~must~~ from earnings shall be based on at least a written 305 determination that implementing ~~wage~~ such withholding would not be in the best
 306 interest of the child and proof of timely payment of previously ordered support in cases 307 involving modification of support orders.

308 (2) All child support orders which are not described in subsection ~~(a)~~ (b) of this Code
 309 section or in paragraph (1) of this subsection shall, upon petition of either party to revise
 310 ~~that~~ such order under Code Section 19-6-19 or to enforce ~~that~~ such order under Code
 311 Section 19-6-28, be revised to include provisions for withholding ~~of~~ such support from 312 the ~~wages~~ earnings of the ~~person~~ individual required by the order to furnish ~~that~~ such 313 support if arrearages equal to one month's support accrue but without the necessity of 314 filing application for services under Code Section 19-11-6.

315 (3) Copies of income deduction orders issued under this subsection shall be ~~served on~~ 316 ~~the obligee, obligor, and the child support IV-D agency~~ provided by the obligee to the 317 obligor, payor, and the family support registry established pursuant to Code Section 318 19-6-33.1.

319 ~~(b)~~(d) ~~An~~ The income deduction order shall:

320 (1) Direct a payor to deduct from all ~~income~~ earnings due and payable to an obligor the 321 amount required by the support order to meet the obligor's support obligation;

322 (2) State the amount of arrearage accrued, if any, under the support order and direct a
 323 payor to withhold an additional amount until the arrearage is paid in full;

324 (3) Direct a payor not to deduct in excess of the amounts allowed under Section 303(b)
 325 of the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 1673(b), ~~as amended;~~
 326 and

327 (4) Direct the payor to send income deduction ~~payment~~ order payments, including 328 administrative fees authorized by law, to the family support registry ~~as provided for in~~ 329 established pursuant to Code Section 19-6-33.1.

330 ~~(c)~~(e) Income deduction orders shall be effective immediately unless ~~the~~ a court upon good
 331 cause shown finds that the income deduction order shall be effective upon a delinquency
 332 in an amount equal to one month's support or a written agreement is reached between both 333 parties which provides for an alternative arrangement.

334 ~~(d)~~(f) ~~An~~ The income deduction order shall be effective so long as the order of support
 335 upon which it is based is effective or until further order of ~~the~~ a court.

336 ~~(e)~~(g) When ~~the court orders the~~ an income deduction ~~to~~ order shall be effective
 337 immediately, the ~~court~~ obligee or child support enforcement agency, as applicable, shall 338 furnish to the obligor a statement of his or her rights, remedies, and duties in regard to the 339 income deduction order. The statement shall state:

- 340 (1) All fees or interest which shall be imposed;
- 341 (2) The total amount of ~~income~~ earnings to be deducted for each pay period until the
- 342 arrearage, if any, is paid in full and ~~state~~ the total amount of ~~income~~ earnings to be
- 343 deducted for each pay period thereafter. The amounts deducted ~~may~~ shall not be in
- 344 excess of that allowed under Section 303(b) of the federal Consumer Credit Protection
- 345 Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 1673(b), ~~as amended~~;
- 346 (3) When the withholding will commence;
- 347 ~~(3)~~(4) That the income deduction ~~applies~~ order shall apply to current and subsequent
- 348 payors and periods of employment;
- 349 ~~(4)~~(5) That a copy of the income deduction order ~~will be served on the obligor's payor~~
- 350 ~~or shall be provided to the~~ payors;
- 351 ~~(5)~~(6) That the enforcement of the income deduction order may only be contested on the
- 352 ground of mistake of fact regarding the amount of support owed pursuant to a support
- 353 order, the arrearages, or the identity of the obligor; ~~and~~
- 354 (7) How to contest the withholding; and
- 355 ~~(6)~~(8) That the obligor is required to notify the obligee and, when the obligee is receiving
- 356 Title IV-D services, the ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement agency, within seven days of
- 357 changes in the obligor's address and payors and the addresses of his or her payors.
- 358 ~~(f)~~(h) When ~~the~~ an income deduction order is effective upon a delinquency in an amount
- 359 equal to one month's support, or when an order for spousal or child support was in effect
- 360 prior to July 1, 1989, the obligee or child support enforcement agency, as applicable, may
- 361 enforce the income deduction order by ~~servicing~~ providing a notice of delinquency ~~on~~ to the
- 362 obligor. A ~~The~~ notice of delinquency shall state:
- 363 (1) The terms of the support order;
- 364 (2) The period of delinquency and the total amount of the delinquency as of the date the
- 365 notice is mailed;
- 366 (3) All fees or interest which may be imposed;
- 367 (4) The total amount of ~~income~~ earnings to be deducted for each pay period until the
- 368 arrearage and all applicable fees and interest are paid in full and the total amount of
- 369 ~~income~~ earnings to be deducted for each pay period thereafter. The amounts deducted
- 370 ~~may~~ shall not be in excess of that allowed under Section 303(b) of the federal Consumer
- 371 Credit Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 1673(b), ~~as amended~~;
- 372 (5) That a copy of the notice of delinquency ~~will be served on the obligor's payor or~~ shall
- 373 be provided to the payors, together with a copy of the income deduction order. The
- 374 obligor may apply to ~~the~~ a court to contest enforcement of the order once the notice of
- 375 delinquency has been ~~served~~ received. The application shall not affect the enforcement

376 of the income deduction order until ~~the~~ a court enters an order granting relief to the 377 obligor;

378 (6) That the enforcement of the income deduction order may only be contested on the
379 ground of mistake of fact regarding the amount of support owed pursuant to a support
380 order, the arrearages, or the identity of the obligor; and

381 (7) That the obligor is required to notify the obligee of the obligor's current address and 382 current payors and the address of current payors. All changes shall be reported by the 383 obligor within seven days of the change occurring. If the ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement
384 agency is enforcing ~~the~~ such order, the obligor shall make these notifications to the child
385 support enforcement agency instead of to the obligee.

386 (i) The failure of the obligor to receive the notice of delinquency ~~does not preclude~~
387 subsequent service of provided for in subsection (h) of this Code section shall not preclude
388 the income deduction order ~~on the obligor's being subsequently provided to the~~ payor. A
389 notice of delinquency which fails to state an arrearage ~~does~~ shall not mean that an arrearage 390 is not owed.

391 ~~(g)~~(j) At any time, any party, including the ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement agency, may 392 apply to ~~the court, referee of the court, or administrative law judge~~ a court to:

393 (1) Modify, suspend, or terminate the ~~order for~~ income deduction order because of a 394 modification, suspension, or termination of the underlying order for support; or

395 (2) Modify the amount of ~~income deducted~~ earnings being withheld when the arrearage
396 has been paid."

397 SECTION 1-14.

398 Said title is further amended by revising Code Section 19-6-33, relating to the notice and 399 service of income deduction order, as follows:

400 "19-6-33.

401 (a) As used in this Code section, the term:

402 (1) 'Child support enforcement agency' means the entity within the Department of 403 Human Services and its contractors that are authorized to enforce a duty of support.

404 (2) 'Court' means judge of any court of record or an administrative law judge of the 405 Office of State Administrative Hearings.

406 (3) 'Earnings' means any form of payment due to an individual, regardless of source,
407 including without limitation wages, salary, commission, bonus, workers' compensation,
408 disability, payments pursuant to a pension or retirement program, and interest.

409 (4) 'IV-D' means Title IV-D of the federal Social Security Act.

410 (5) 'Obligee' means the individual to whom the payment of a support obligation is owed.

411 (6) 'Obligor' means the individual owing a duty of support.

412 (7) 'Payor' means the person that provides earnings to an obligor.

413 ~~(a)(b)~~ The obligee ~~or his or her agent shall serve~~ shall provide an income deduction order
414 ~~and the notice to the payor,~~ and in the case of a delinquency, a notice of delinquency, ~~on~~
415 ~~the obligor's to the payor. The obligor must be notified that withholding has commenced~~
416 ~~and how to contest the withholding. The obligee or child support enforcement agency, as~~
417 applicable, shall provide the notice to payor as set forth in subsection (f) of this Code
418 section.

419 ~~(b)(c)~~ Service of the initial income deduction order by or upon any person who is a party
420 to a proceeding under this Code section shall be by personal service, by certified mail ~~or~~ 421 ~~statutory overnight delivery, return receipt requested, or by regular mail~~ by statutory 422 overnight delivery, or by first-class mail; such order may be served electronically if 423 permitted under Code Section 9-11-5. Service upon ~~an obligor's a~~ payor or successor payor
424 under this Code section shall be by ~~regular~~ first-class mail, ~~or such order may be served~~
425 electronically if permitted under Code Section 9-11-5.

426 ~~(c)(d)(1)~~ When ~~the~~ an income deduction order is effective upon a delinquency in an 427 amount equal to one month's support, the obligor may apply to ~~the~~ a court to contest the 428 enforcement of the income deduction order on the ground of mistake of fact regarding the 429 amount of support owed pursuant to a support order, the amount of arrearage of support,
430 or the identity of the obligor. The obligor shall send a copy of ~~the~~ his or her pleading to 431 the obligee and, if the obligee is receiving IV-D services, to the ~~IV-D~~ child support
432 enforcement agency. The filing of ~~the~~ such pleading ~~does~~ shall not affect the 433 enforcement of an income deduction order unless ~~the~~ a court enters an order granting 434 relief to the obligor. The payment of delinquent support by an obligor upon entry of an 435 income deduction order shall not preclude ~~service of the income deduction on~~ order being 436 provided to the obligor's payor.

437 (2) When an obligor requests a hearing to contest enforcement of an income deduction
438 order, ~~the court, referee, or administrative law judge~~ a court, after due notice to all parties
439 and the ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement agency, if the obligee is receiving IV-D services, 440 shall hear the matter within 30 days after the application is filed and shall not extend the
441 time for hearing unless good cause for a later date is found by ~~the~~ a court, in which event
442 the time for a hearing may be extended for up to 30 days. A court ~~The court, referee, or~~ 443 ~~administrative law judge~~ shall enter an order resolving the matter within ten days after 444 the hearing. ~~A copy of this order shall be served on~~ and provide such order to the parties
445 and the ~~IV-D~~ agency child support enforcement agency, if the obligee is receiving IV-D 446 services.

447 ~~(d)(e)~~ When a court, ~~court referee, or administrative law judge~~ determines that an income
448 deduction order is proper pursuant to subsection ~~(e)~~ (d) of this Code section, the obligee

449 ~~or his or her agent~~ shall cause a copy of the income deduction order ~~and a notice to payor,~~
 450 and in the case of a delinquency, a notice of delinquency, to be ~~served on the obligee's~~
 451 ~~payors provided to the payor.~~ The obligee or child support enforcement agency, as
 452 applicable, shall provide the notice to payor as set forth in subsection (f) of this Code
 453 section. A copy of the notice to ~~the~~ payor, and in the case of a delinquency, a notice of 454 delinquency, shall also be ~~furnished~~ provided to the obligor by the obligee or child support 455 enforcement agency, as applicable.

456 ~~(e)~~(f) ~~A~~ The notice to payor shall contain only information necessary for the payor to 457 comply with the income deduction order. The payor shall have the duties, penalties, and 458 rights specified in ~~the~~ such notice. The notice to payor shall:

459 (1) Require the payor to deduct from the obligor's ~~income~~ earnings the amount specified
 460 in the income deduction order, and in the case of a delinquency the amount specified in 461 the notice of delinquency, and to pay ~~that~~ such amount to the ~~obligee or to a child support~~
 462 ~~receiver, the IV-D agency, or other designee, as appropriate~~ family support registry
 463 established pursuant to Code Section 19-6-33.1. The amount actually deducted plus all
 464 administrative charges shall not be in excess of the amount allowed under Section 303(b)
 465 of the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 1673(b);

466 (2) Instruct the payor to implement the income deduction order no later than the first pay
 467 period that occurs after 14 days following the date the notice was mailed;

468 (3) Instruct the payor to forward, within two business days after each payment date, to 469 the family support registry the amount deducted from the obligor's ~~income~~ earnings and 470 a statement as to whether ~~that~~ such amount totally or partially satisfies the periodic 471 amount specified in the income deduction order;

472 (4) Specify that if a payor willfully fails to deduct the proper amount from the obligor's 473 ~~income~~ earnings, the payor ~~is~~ shall be liable for the amount the payor should have 474 deducted, plus costs, interest, and reasonable attorney's fees;

475 (5) Provide that the payor may collect up to $25.00 against the obligor's ~~income~~ earnings
 476 to reimburse the payor for administrative costs for the first ~~income deduction~~ payment pursuant 477 ~~to an payment of an~~ income deduction order and up to $3.00 for each ~~deduction thereafter~~
 478 subsequent payment. The payor ~~of income may~~ shall not deduct a fee for complying with 479 any order or notice for enrollment in a health benefit plan;

480 (6) State that the income deduction order and the notice to payor, and in the case of a
 481 delinquency, the notice of delinquency, are binding on the payor until ~~further~~ ;

482 (A) Further notice by the obligee, ~~IV-D agency, or the court or until the~~ child support 483 agency, or court; or

484 (B) The payor no longer provides ~~income~~ earnings to the obligor;

485 (7) Instruct the payor that, when the payor no longer provides ~~income~~ earnings to the 486 obligor, the payor shall notify the obligee and shall also provide the obligor's last known 487 address and the name and address of the obligor's new payor, if known, and that, if the 488 payor willfully violates this ~~provision paragraph~~, the payor is ~~is~~ shall be subject to a civil 489 penalty not to exceed $250.00 for the first violation ~~or~~ and $500.00 for any subsequent 490 violation. If the ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement agency is enforcing the income
 491 deduction order, the payor shall make ~~these~~ such notifications to the ~~IV-D~~ child support
 492 enforcement agency instead of to the obligee. Penalties shall be paid to the obligee or the 493 ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement agency, whichever is enforcing the income deduction
 494 order;

495 (8) State that no payor may discharge an obligor by reason of the fact that ~~income has~~
 496 earnings have been subjected to an income deduction order under Code Section 19-6-32
 497 and that a violation of this ~~provision subjects~~ paragraph shall subject the payor to a civil 498 penalty not to exceed $250.00 for the first violation ~~or~~ and $500.00 for a any subsequent 499 violation. Penalties shall be paid to the obligee or the ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement
 500 agency, whichever is enforcing the income deduction order, if any support is owing. If 501 no support is owing, the penalty shall be paid to the obligor;

502 (9) Inform the payor that the income deduction order has priority over all other legal 503 processes under state law pertaining to the same ~~income~~ earnings and that payment, as 504 required by the income deduction order, is a complete defense by the payor against any 505 claims of the obligor or his or her creditors as to the sum paid;

506 (10) Inform the payor that if the payor receives income deduction orders requiring that 507 the ~~income~~ earnings of two or more obligors be deducted and sent to the same depository,
 508 ~~he~~ the payor may combine the amounts paid to the depository in a single payment as so
 509 long as ~~he~~ the payor identifies that portion of the payment attributable to each obligor;
 510 and

511 (11) Inform the payor that if the payor ~~receives~~ may receive more than one income
 512 deduction order against the same obligor, ~~he shall contact the court for further~~
 513 ~~instructions. Upon being so contacted, the court shall allocate amounts available for~~ 514 ~~income deduction giving~~ and shall give priority to current child support obligations up
 515 to the limits imposed under Section 303(b) of the federal Consumer Credit Protection
 516 Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 1673(b).

517 ~~(f)(g)~~ At any time an income deduction order is being enforced, the obligor may apply to 518 ~~the~~ a court for a hearing to contest the continued enforcement of the income deduction
 519 order on the same grounds set out in subsection ~~(e)~~ (d) of this Code section, ~~with a~~ and 520 provide a copy of the pleading requesting such hearing to the obligee and, in IV-D cases, 521 to the ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement agency. ~~Such~~ The application ~~does~~ shall not affect

522 the continued enforcement of the income deduction order until ~~the~~ a court enters an order
 523 granting relief to the obligor. The obligee of the ~~IV-D~~ agency is released from liability
 524 may be liable for improper receipt of moneys pursuant to an income deduction order ~~upon~~
 525 ~~return to the appropriate party of any moneys received.~~

526 ~~(g)~~(h) An obligee, or ~~his~~ an obligee's agent, shall enforce income deduction orders against 527 an obligor's successor payor who is located in this state in the same manner prescribed in 528 this Code section for the enforcement of an income deduction order against a payor.

 710 meaning of Section 851(a) of the Internal Revenue Code which seeks to maintain a 711 constant net asset value of $1.00 in accordance with 17 C.F.R. Section 270.2A-7.

712 (12) 'Obligee' means the individual to whom the payment of a support obligation is 713 owed.

714 (13) 'Obligor' means the individual owing a duty of support.

715 ~~(12)~~(14) 'Parent' means the natural or adoptive parents of a child and includes the father
 716 of a child born out of wedlock if his paternity has been established in a judicial 717 proceeding or if he has acknowledged paternity under oath either in open court, in an 718 administrative hearing, or by verified writing.

719 ~~(13)~~(15) 'TANF' means temporary assistance for needy families."

720 SECTION 1-17.

721 Said title is further amended by revising subsections (f) and (g) of Code Section 19-11-6,
 722 relating to enforcement of child support payments and alimony for public assistance
 723 recipients, as follows:

724 "(f) The department shall be authorized to charge the ~~obligee a federal Deficit Reduction~~
 725 ~~Act of 2005 fee of $12.00 to be paid at the rate of $1.00 per month after the IV-D agency~~
 726 ~~has collected $500.00 of child support annually for each case. The department shall retain~~
 727 ~~such fee and deduct such fee from child support collections before disbursement to the~~
 728 ~~obligee. Such fee shall only apply to an obligee who has never received public assistance~~
 729 ~~payments pursuant to Title IV-A or Title IV-E of the federal Social Security Act.~~

730 ~~(g) The department shall be authorized to charge the obligor a federal Deficit Reduction~~
 731 ~~Act of 2005 fee of $13.00 $25.00 to be paid in 12 monthly installments after the IV-D~~
 732 ~~agency has collected $500.00 of child support annually for each case. Such fee shall only~~
 733 ~~apply to an obligor when the obligee has never received public assistance payments~~
 734 ~~pursuant to Title IV-A or Title IV-E of the federal Social Security Act. The department~~
 735 ~~shall retain such fee and collect such fee through income withholding, as well as by any~~
 736 ~~other enforcement remedy available to the IV-D agency responsible for child entity within~~
 737 ~~the department authorized to enforce a duty of support enforcement.~~"

738 SECTION 1-18.

739 Said title is further amended by revising subsections (e) and (f) of Code Section 19-11-8,
 740 relating to the department's duty to enforce support of abandoned minor public assistance
 741 recipient, as follows:

742 "~~(e) The department shall be authorized to charge the obligee a federal Deficit Reduction~~
 743 ~~Act of 2005 fee of $12.00 to be paid at the rate of $1.00 per month after the IV-D agency~~
 744 ~~has collected $500.00 of child support annually for each case. The department shall retain~~
 745 ~~such fee and deduct such fee from child support collections before disbursement to the~~
 746 ~~obligee. Such fee shall only apply to an obligee who has never received public assistance~~
 747 ~~payments pursuant to Title IV-A or Title IV-E of the federal Social Security Act.~~

748 ~~(f) The department shall be authorized to charge the obligor a federal Deficit Reduction~~
 749 ~~Act of 2005 fee of $13.00 $25.00 to be paid in 12 monthly installments after the IV-D~~
 750 ~~agency has collected $500.00 of child support annually for each case. Such fee shall only~~
 751 ~~apply to an obligor when the obligee has never received public assistance payments~~
 752 ~~pursuant to Title IV-A or Title IV-E of the federal Social Security Act. The department~~
 753 ~~shall retain such fee and collect such fee through income withholding, as well as by any~~
 754 ~~other enforcement remedy available to the IV-D agency responsible for child entity within~~
 755 ~~the department authorized to enforce a duty of support enforcement."~~

756 SECTION 1-19.

757 Said title is further amended by revising Code Section 19-11-9.3, relating to suspension or 758 denial of license for noncompliance with child support order, as follows:

759 "19-11-9.3.

760 (a) As used in this Code section, the term:

761 (1) 'Agency' means the ~~agency~~ entity within the Department of Human Services which 762 is responsible for enforcing orders for child support pursuant to this article.

763 (2) 'Applicant' means any ~~person~~ individual applying for issuance or renewal of a license.

764 (3) 'Certified list' means a list ~~provided by the agency~~ of the names of ~~support delinquent~~
 765 ~~obligors found to be not in compliance with an order for child support~~ in a case being 766 enforced under this article.

767 (4) 'Compliance with an order for child support' means, as set forth in a court order,
 768 administrative order, or contempt order for child support, the obligor is not more than 60
 769 calendar days in arrears in making payments in full for current support, periodic 770 payments on a support arrearage, or periodic payments on a reimbursement for public 771 assistance.

772 (5) 'Delinquent obligor' means any ~~obligor~~ individual owing a duty of support who is not
 773 in compliance with an order for child support ~~and who appears on the agency's certified~~
 774 ~~list.~~

775 (6) 'Department' means the Department of Human Services.

776 (7) 'License' means a certificate, permit, registration, or any other authorization issued 777 by any licensing entity that allows a ~~person~~ an individual to operate a motor vehicle or 778 to engage in a profession, business, or occupation.

779 (8) 'Licensee' means any ~~person~~ individual holding a license.

780 (9) 'Licensing entity' means any ~~state~~ agency, department, or board of this state which 781 issues or renews any license, ~~certificate, permit, or registration to authorize a person to~~ 782 ~~drive a motor vehicle, or to engage in a profession, business, or occupation including~~
 783 ~~those under Article 3 of Chapter 7 of Title 2, the 'Georgia Pesticide Use and Application~~
 784 ~~Act of 1976'; Article 13 of Chapter 1 of Title 7, relating to mortgage lenders and~~
 785 ~~mortgage brokers; Chapter 5 of Title 10, the 'Georgia Uniform Securities Act of 2008,'~~
 786 ~~relating to securities salespersons and investment adviser representatives; Part 2 of~~ 787 ~~Article 1 of Chapter 6 of Title 12, relating to foresters; Chapter 4 of Title 26, relating to~~ 788 ~~pharmacists; Chapter 23 of Title 33, relating to insurance agents, counselors, and other~~
 789 ~~personnel; Chapter 1 of Title 43, relating to professions and businesses; Chapter 39A of~~
 790 ~~Title 43, relating to real estate appraisers; or Chapter 40 of Title 43, relating to real estate~~
 791 ~~brokers and salespersons.~~

792 (b) The agency shall maintain a state-wide certified list ~~of those persons included in any~~ 793 ~~case enforced under this article~~ for whom an order for child support has been rendered and 794 who are not in compliance with ~~that~~ such order. Such ~~The certified list must be updated~~
 795 ~~on a monthly basis~~ shall be regularly updated. The agency shall submit to each licensing
 796 entity a certified list with the name, social security number, if known, date of birth, and last 797 known address of each ~~person~~ individual on the list.

798 (c) ~~On or before January 1, 1997, all~~ All licensing entities shall implement procedures to
 799 accept and process the certified list ~~provided by the agency in accordance with this Code~~
 800 ~~section.~~

801 (d) Promptly after receiving the certified list from the agency, all licensing entities shall 802 determine whether an applicant or licensee is on the most recent certified list. If an 803 applicant or licensee is on the certified list, the licensing entity shall immediately notify the 804 agency. Such ~~That~~ notification shall include the applicant's or licensee's last known
 805 mailing address ~~on file with the licensing entity.~~

806 (e) After receiving notice from a licensing entity of applicants or licensees who are on the 807 certified list, the agency shall immediately notify those individuals as specified in

808 subsection (f) of this Code section of the agency's intent to request that all pertinent
809 licensing entities suspend all licenses or withhold issuance or renewal of any license.

810 (f) Notice for purposes of this Code section shall be initiated by the department. Notice
811 to the delinquent obligor shall include the address and telephone number of the agency and 812 shall inform the delinquent obligor of the agency's intent to submit the delinquent obligor's
813 name to relevant licensing entities and to request that the licensing entities withhold 814 issuance or renewal of the license, or suspend the license. Notice shall be sent by 815 first-class mail and receipt by the delinquent obligor may be presumed if the mailing is not 816 returned to the department within 30 days from the date of mailing. The notice ~~must~~ shall 817 also inform the delinquent obligor ~~of the following that~~:

818 (1) The delinquent obligor has 20 days from the date of mailing to come into compliance
819 with the order or to reach an agreement to pay the delinquency with the agency. If an 820 agreement cannot be reached within that time or if the delinquent obligor does not
821 respond within that time, the agency ~~will~~ shall send notice to the licensing entities
822 requesting that the licenses be suspended or the licensure applications be denied;

823 (2) The delinquent obligor may request an administrative hearing and judicial review of 824 that hearing under subsection (g) of this Code section. A request for a hearing ~~must~~ shall 825 be made in writing and ~~must~~ shall be received by the agency within 20 days of service
826 of notice; and

827 (3) If the delinquent obligor requests a hearing within 20 days of service, the department
828 shall stay all action pending the hearing and any appeals.

829 (g) If no response is received from the delinquent obligor by the department within 30
830 days from the date of mailing of the notice and the delinquent obligor is still shown as 831 delinquent on the next month's certified list ~~prepared pursuant to subsection (b) of this~~
832 ~~Code section~~, the department shall request one or more licensing entities to deny or 833 suspend a license of the delinquent obligor. Each licensing entity shall notify the 834 delinquent obligor by certified mail or statutory overnight delivery of the date that the 835 license has been denied or suspended.

836 (h)(1) All delinquent obligors subject to the sanctions imposed in this Code section shall 837 have the right to a hearing before an administrative law judge of the Office of State
838 Administrative Hearings pursuant to Article 2 of Chapter 13 of Title 50. A delinquent
839 obligor who requests a hearing within the time prescribed in subsection (f) of this Code
840 section shall have the right to a hearing. The hearing shall be conducted as provided in 841 Article 2 of Chapter 13 of Title 50 within 45 days after such demand is received. The 842 only issues at the hearing ~~will be the following~~ shall be:

843 ~~(A)~~(A) Whether there is an order for child support being enforced pursuant to this 844 article;

845 ~~(2)(B)~~ Whether the licensee or applicant is the obligor covered by that order;

846 ~~(3)(C)~~ Whether the ~~support~~ obligor is or is not in compliance with the order for child
847 support;

848 ~~(4)(D)~~ Whether the ~~support~~ obligor shall be entitled to pay past due child support in 849 periodic payments; and

850 ~~(5)(E)~~ Whether the ~~support~~ obligor has been able and willing to comply with such 851 order for support.

852 (2) With respect to the issues listed in paragraph (1) of this subsection, evidence relating 853 to the ability and willingness of an obligor to comply with such order for support shall 854 be considered in making the decision to either suspend a license or deny the issuance or 855 renewal of a license under this Code section. The administrative law judge shall be 856 authorized to enter into an agreement or enter an order requiring such periodic payments
857 and, in each event, the administrative law judge shall be authorized to issue a release for 858 the obligor to obtain each license or licenses. Such an agreement ~~will~~ shall not act to 859 modify an existing child support order, but rather shall affect only ~~affects~~ the payment
860 of the arrearage.

861 (i) The decision at the hearing shall be subject to appeal and judicial review pursuant to 862 Article 2 of Chapter 13 of Title 50 but only as to those issues referred to in subsection (h)
863 of this Code section. Notwithstanding any hearing requirements for suspension and denials
864 within each licensing entity, the hearing and appeal procedures outlined in this Code
865 section shall be the only hearing required to suspend a license or deny the issuance or 866 renewal of a license under this Code section.

867 (j) The department shall prescribe release forms for use by the agency. When the obligor
868 is determined to be in compliance with an order for child support or is determined to be not 869 in compliance with such order but has been determined in a hearing pursuant to subsection
870 (h) of this Code section to be unable to comply with the order or to be not willfully out of 871 compliance with such order, the agency shall mail to the delinquent obligor and the 872 appropriate licensing entity a notice of release stating such determination. The receipt of 873 a notice of release shall serve to notify the delinquent obligor and the licensing entity that,
874 for the purpose of this Code section, he or she is in compliance with an order for child
875 support, and the licensing entity shall promptly thereafter issue or reinstate the license,
876 unless the agency, pursuant to subsection (b) of this Code section, certifies subsequent to 877 the issuance of a notice of release that the ~~delinquent~~ obligor is once again not in 878 compliance with an order for child support.

879 (k) Any payments received by the department on behalf of a child support recipient under 880 this Code section shall be forwarded to such recipient within 15 days after any such 881 payment is received by the department.

882 (l) The department may enter into interagency agreements with state agencies that have 883 responsibility for the administration of licensing entities as necessary to implement this 884 Code section. Those agreements shall provide for the receipt by other state agencies and 885 boards of federal funds to cover that portion of costs allowable under federal law and 886 regulation and incurred by state agencies and boards in implementing this Code section.

887 ~~(m) In furtherance of the public policy of increasing child support enforcement and~~
 888 ~~collections, on or before January 1, 1998, the department shall make a report to the General~~
 889 ~~Assembly and the Governor based on data collected by the boards and the department in~~
 890 ~~a format prescribed by the department. The report shall contain all of the following:~~

891 ~~(1) The number of delinquent obligors certified by the agency under this Code section;~~

892 ~~(2) The number of delinquent obligors who also were applicants for issuance or renewal~~
 893 ~~of a license or licensees subject to this Code section;~~

894 ~~(3) The number of new licenses and renewals that were denied subject to this Code~~
 895 ~~section and the number of new licenses issued and renewals granted following a licensing~~
 896 ~~entity's receipt of releases;~~

897 ~~(4) The number of licenses suspended subject to this Code section, and the number of~~ 898 ~~licenses reissued following the licensing entity's receipt of releases; and~~

899 ~~(5) The amount of revenue collected by the department after sending notices pursuant~~ 900 ~~to this Code section.~~

901 ~~(n)(m)~~ Any licensing entity receiving an inquiry as to the license status of an applicant
 902 who has had an application for issuance or renewal of a license denied under this Code
 903 section shall respond only that the license was suspended or the licensure application was 904 denied pursuant to this Code section.

905 ~~(o) The department shall, and the licensing entities as appropriate may, adopt regulations~~
 906 ~~necessary to implement this Code section.~~

907 ~~(p)(n)~~ The department shall inform delinquent obligors of resources available which may 908 remedy such delinquent obligor's license suspension.

909 ~~(o) The department shall, and the licensing entities as appropriate may, adopt regulations~~
 910 ~~necessary to implement this Code section."~~

911 SECTION 1-20.

912 Said title is further amended by revising paragraph (4) of subsection (d) of Code Section
 913 19-11-12, relating to review of orders for child support, as follows:

914 "(4)(A) In the case of an administrative order, the child support enforcement agency 915 shall request the administrative law judge to increase or decrease the amount in the 916 existing order in accordance with ~~the~~ such agency recommendation. If either the 917 obligor or the obligee files with the child support enforcement agency written

918 objections to ~~the~~ such agency's proposed child support order adjustment or 919 determination of no change to the child support order within 33 days of the mailed
 920 notice, the matter shall be scheduled for an administrative hearing within the Office of 921 State Administrative Hearings. The administrative order adjusting the child support
 922 award amount which results from a hearing or the failure to object to the child support
 923 enforcement agency's proposed adjustment or determination of no change shall, upon 924 filing with the local clerk of the court, have the full effect of a modification of the 925 original order or decree of support. As part of the order adjusting the child support
 926 award the administrative law judge shall issue an income ~~and earnings~~ deduction order
 927 which shall also be filed with the court pursuant to Code Sections 19-6-30 through 928 ~~19-6-33~~ 19-6-33.1.

929 (B) In the case of a judicial order, the child support enforcement agency shall file a 930 petition asking the court to adopt ~~the~~ such agency's proposed adjustment or 931 determination of no change to the child support order which shall be filed
 932 contemporaneously with ~~the~~ such agency's mailed notice and shall serve such petition
 933 upon the obligor and obligee in the manner provided in subsection (e) of Code Section
 934 9-11-4. Upon the filing of a written objection to the child support enforcement agency's 935 proposed adjustment or determination of no change with the clerk of the superior court
 936 and with ~~the~~ such agency, a de novo proceeding shall be scheduled with the court on 937 the matter. If neither party files an objection within 30 days from the service of the 938 petition, the court shall issue an order adopting the recommendation of the ~~H-D~~ child
 939 support enforcement agency. As part of the order adjusting the child support award, the 940 court shall issue an income ~~and earnings~~ deduction order pursuant to Code Sections
 941 19-6-30 through ~~19-6-33~~ 19-6-33.1."

942 SECTION 1-21.

943 Said title is further amended by revising subsections (a) and (c) of Code Section 19-11-15,
 944 relating to voluntary support agreement, notice, and hearing, as follows:

945 "(a) When the department has completed its investigation, has determined the ability of the 946 absent parent to support his or her child or children in accordance with guidelines
 947 prescribed in Code Section 19-6-15, and believes that the absent parent is able to furnish 948 a certain amount of support, the department may, as an exception to Code Section 9-12-18,
 949 request the absent parent to enter into a proposed consent order and income deduction order
 950 to provide the support amount and accident and sickness insurance coverage consistent
 951 with Code Section 19-11-26 prior to the filing of an action with the superior court. The 952 orders may not be set aside on the grounds that the parties consented thereto prior to the 953 filing of the action. An income deduction order shall issue consistent with Code Sections

954 19-6-30 through ~~19-6-34~~ 19-6-33.1. If the department is unable to secure a proposed 955 consent order from the parent, the department may file an action in superior court or may
 956 initiate an administrative action pursuant to Chapter 13 of Title 50, the 'Georgia
 957 Administrative Procedure Act.'"

958 "(c) The determination of the administrative law judge regarding the ability to provide 959 support and the ability to provide accident and sickness insurance coverage shall be 960 delivered to the absent parent personally or shall be sent by ~~regular~~ first-class mail. The 961 final order shall include an ~~order for income deduction~~ order consistent with Code Sections
 962 19-6-30 through ~~19-6-34~~ 19-6-33.1, and shall inform the absent parent in plain language:

963 (1) That failure to support may result in the foreclosure of liens on his or her personal or 964 real property, in garnishment of his or her ~~wages~~ earnings or other personalty, or in other 965 collection actions; and

966 (2) That the absent parent has the right to appeal the determination within 30 days."

967 SECTION 1-22.

968 Said title is further amended by revising subsections (a) and (f) of Code Section 19-11-18,
 969 relating to collection procedures, as follows:

970 "(a) The ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement agency, in accordance with ~~Title IV, Part D of~~ 971 ~~the federal Social Security Act, is~~ IV-D, shall be authorized to institute collection
 972 procedures for all arrearages which have accrued against child support payments owed
 973 pursuant to a judgment or support order of a court ~~or an order from a IV-D agency of~~ 974 competent jurisdiction. ~~Such~~ These collection procedures shall include, but shall not be 975 limited to, notification of employers that a wage assignment is in effect and not suspended;
 976 notification of obligors; demand letters; use of state and federal income tax refund intercept 977 programs; initiation of contempt proceedings; the use of liens, levies, and seizures as 978 provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this Code section; the use of the services of any 979 person providing collection services to the department; seeking warrants in appropriate 980 situations; attachment or lien against property; civil actions to reach and apply; and any 981 other civil or administrative remedy available for the enforcement of judgments or for the 982 enforcement of support or custody orders."

983 "(f) Unless otherwise provided by federal law, and notwithstanding ~~Notwithstanding~~ any 984 other provision of this title to the contrary, any child support being held by the ~~Child~~
 985 ~~Support Enforcement Agency of the department~~ child support enforcement agency shall 986 be paid to the custodial parent, legal guardian, or caretaker ~~relative~~ having custody of or 987 responsibility for a child within two days from receipt ~~of same by the enforcement agency~~
 988 by the child support enforcement agency of such child support."

989 SECTION 1-23.

990 Said title is further amended by revising paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of Code Section
991 19-11-30, relating to confidentiality of information and records, as follows:

992 "(2) The department shall provide to an attorney representing an obligor, to an attorney
993 representing an obligee, or to a private child support collector, as defined in Code Section 994 10-1-392, and hired by an obligee and acting pursuant to a power of attorney signed by 995 such obligee, any documents which such obligor or obligee would be entitled to request
996 and receive from the ~~Child Support Enforcement Agency of the department~~ child support 997 enforcement agency."

998 SECTION 1-24.

999 Said title is further amended by revising subsections (a) and (b) of Code Section 19-11-32,
1000 relating to the process to collect delinquent support accounts, as follows:

1001 "(a) Notwithstanding other statutory provisions which provide for the execution,
1002 attachment, or levy against accounts, the ~~IV-D~~ agency, ~~including its authorized contractors,~~
1003 child support enforcement agency may utilize the process established in this Code section
1004 and Code Sections 19-11-33 through 19-11-39 to collect delinquent support payments,
1005 provided that any exemptions or exceptions which specifically apply to enforcement of 1006 support obligations pursuant to ~~other statutory provisions~~ Code Section 18-4-6 shall also 1007 apply.

1008 (b) An obligor is subject to the provisions of this Code section and Code Sections
1009 19-11-33 through 19-11-39 if the obligor's support obligation is being enforced by the ~~IV-D~~
1010 child support enforcement agency and if the support payments ordered pursuant to Georgia
1011 law or under a comparable statute of a foreign jurisdiction, as certified to the ~~IV-D~~ child
1012 support enforcement agency, are delinquent in an amount equal to the support payment for 1013 one month."

1014 SECTION 1-25.

1015 Said title is further amended by revising paragraph (1) of subsection (d) and subsections (k)
1016 and (l) of Code Section 19-11-37, relating to challenges to levy and procedure, as follows:

1017 "(1) If a mistake in identity has occurred or the obligor is not delinquent in an amount
1018 equal to the payment for one month, the ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement agency shall 1019 notify the financial institution that the administrative levy has been released. The ~~IV-D~~ 1020 child support enforcement agency shall provide a copy of the notice of release to the 1021 support obligor by regular first-class mail; or"

1022 "(k) An order entered under this Code section for a levy against an account of a ~~support~~
 1023 an obligor has priority over a levy for a purpose other than the support of the dependents
 1024 in the order being enforced.

1025 (l) The ~~support~~ obligor may withdraw the request for challenge by submitting a written
 1026 withdrawal to the ~~person~~ individual identified as the contact for the ~~IV-D~~ child support
 1027 enforcement agency in the notice, or the ~~IV-D~~ child support enforcement agency may 1028 withdraw the administrative levy at any time prior to the court hearing and provide notice
 1029 of the withdrawal to the obligor and any account holder of interest and to the financial 1030 institution by ~~regular~~ first-class mail."

1031 SECTION 1-26.

1032 Said title is further amended by revising subsection (a) of Code Section 19-11-39, relating 1033 to computerized central case registry for support orders, as follows:

1034 "(a) The department shall create by contract, cooperative agreement, or otherwise a 1035 computerized central case registry for all support orders entered by any court or 1036 administrative tribunal of this state. All ~~IV-D agency orders~~ support orders obtained by the 1037 child support enforcement agency as well as those support orders not within the ~~IV-D~~ child
 1038 support enforcement agency shall be registered in ~~this~~ such data base. The department may 1039 enter into a cooperative agreement with the Administrative Office of the Courts so as to 1040 obtain information needed to create and maintain the state registry of support orders as 1041 required by federal law."

1042 SECTION 1-27.

1043 Said title is further amended by revising paragraph (10) of Code Section 19-11-101, relating 1044 to definitions for the "Uniform Interstate Family Support Act," as follows:

1045 "(10) 'Income-withholding order' means an order or other legal process directed to an 1046 obligor's employer or other debtor, pursuant to Code Sections ~~19-6-31 through~~ 19-6-32
 1047 and 19-6-33, to withhold support from the income of the obligor."

1048 SECTION 1-28.

1049 Said title is further amended by revising Code Section 19-11-150, relating to issuance of 1050 income-withholding orders, as follows:

1051 "19-11-150.

1052 An income-withholding order issued in another state may be sent by or on behalf of the 1053 obligee, or by the support enforcement agency, to the person defined as the obligor's
 1054 employer pursuant to Code Sections ~~19-6-31~~ 19-6-32 through ~~19-6-33~~ 19-6-33.1 without

1055 first filing a petition or comparable pleading or registering the order with a tribunal of this 1056 state."

1057 SECTION 1-29.

1058 Said title is further amended by revising subsection (d) of Code Section 19-11-164, relating 1059 to notification to nonregistering party and obligor's employer, as follows:

1060 "(d) Upon registration of an income-withholding order for enforcement, the child support

SECTION 2-5.

1120
1121 Article 5 of Chapter 3 of Title 42 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to 1122 diversion center and program for violation of alimony and child support orders, is amended
1123 by revising Code Section 42-3-90, relating to establishment of diversion center, as follows:

1124 "42-3-90.

1125 A county shall be authorized to establish a diversion center under the direction of the 1126 sheriff of the county in which the diversion center is located and a diversion program for 1127 the confinement of certain ~~persons~~ individuals who have been found in contempt of court 1128 for violation of orders granting temporary or permanent alimony or child support and 1129 sentenced pursuant to subsection (c) of Code Section 15-1-4. While in such diversion 1130 program, the respondent shall be authorized to travel to and from his or her place of 1131 employment and to continue his or her occupation. The official in charge of the diversion 1132 program or his or her designee shall prescribe the routes, manner of travel, and periods of 1133 travel to be used by the respondent in attending to his or her occupation. If the respondent's 1134 occupation requires the respondent to travel away from his or her place of employment, the 1135 amount and conditions of such travel shall be approved by the official in charge of the 1136 diversion center or his or her designee. When the respondent is not traveling to or from his 1137 or her place of employment or engaging in his or her occupation, such ~~person~~ respondent
1138 shall be confined in the diversion center during the term of the sentence. With the approval
1139 of the sheriff or his or her designee, the respondent may participate in educational or 1140 counseling programs offered at the diversion center. While participating in the diversion 1141 program, ~~the~~ such respondent shall be liable for alimony or child support as previously
1142 ordered, including arrears, and his or her income shall be subject to the provisions of Code
1143 Sections 19-6-30 through ~~19-6-33~~ 19-6-33.1 and Chapter 11 of Title 19. In addition,
1144 should any funds remain after payment of child support or alimony, ~~the~~ such respondent
1145 may be charged ~~and~~ a fee payable to the county operating the diversion program to cover 1146 the costs of his or her incarceration and the administration of the diversion program which 1147 fee shall be not more than $30.00 per day or the actual per diem cost of maintaining the 1148 respondent, whichever is less, for the entire period of time ~~the person~~ such respondent is 1149 confined to the diversion center and participating in the diversion program. If ~~the~~ such 1150 respondent fails to comply with any of the requirements imposed upon him or her in 1151 accordance with this Code section, nothing shall prevent the sentencing judge from 1152 revoking such assignment to a such diversion program and providing for alternative 1153 methods of incarceration."
